Conditions of Reproduction:

1. The City of Toronto Archives may refuse to approve any copying likely to damage records.
2. Copies of records are provided under this agreement for the purposes of private research and study only. A separate application must be made for permission to reproduce further or publish material.
3. Where the City of Toronto owns copyright of any record reproduced, it shall not by reason of the delivery of such reproduction at the request of the applicant, be deemed to have assigned or otherwise transferred the copyright thereto.
4. No reproduced images obtained from the City of Toronto Archives are to be sold, or in any way reproduced or published without prior written consent.
5. The City of Toronto Archives requires pre-payment for all reproduced item(s).
6. Unless you are using custom colour management profiles with compliant software applications such as Adobe Photoshop, colours displayed on your monitor may appear different from the original image.
7. The City of Toronto Archives uses high quality inkjet papers and inks. Temperature, humidity and lighting conditions can cause prints to fade or change colours. Manufacturers of inkjet products will not guarantee the longevity of prints. Consequently, the City of Toronto Archives cannot guarantee that its prints will not fade or change colours.
8. Unless you provide us with different instructions, each digital reproduction will include the entire image plus any border and any descriptive text that was added to the image.

I hereby apply for permission to obtain copies of the above records from the City of Toronto Archives. I have read and agree to comply in full with the above conditions governing the use of image reproductions from the City of Toronto Archives.
