Instructions: This form is used when requesting non-government records that may contain sensitive information, and thus require review. Please fill in the information on this form, and list the files you wish to view on page 2. When complete, submit to Archives Research Hall staff, and the records will be reviewed. This may take a few days, depending on the number of files. If your application is approved, the signed form will be returned to you, and you must present it when you order the records at the Archives.

Conditions:

- 1) Any personal information relating to an individual, the disclosure of which would constitute an unwarranted invasion of the privacy of that person, must not be disclosed in any manner that could reasonably be expected to identify the individual concerned except with the permission of that individual. In the instance of a deceased person or likelihood that an individual is deceased, permission to consult the papers will be at the discretion of the City Archivist or his/her designate. Personal information relating to a person who held elected office or a senior public administrative position may be disclosed if it relates to the performance of that person in such position.
- 2) Researchers must comply with the requirements of the Canadian Copyright Act. In addition, no quotation from any letter, memorandum or other document may be made without attribution, and no extensive quotation from a document without consent of the copyright holder.
- 3) Permission to consult papers does not necessarily include permission to obtain copies. When copying is permitted, these copies may not be published nor passed to a third party without written authorisation from the Manager, Archival Services.
