

CITY on the MOVE

A FESTIVAL OF YOUNG ARTISTS IN TRANSIT

CALL FOR ARTISTS

ages 18 - 32

Deadline: Ongoing until March 31, 2010

BACKground:

Toronto Cultural Services invites submissions from emerging and more seasoned artists for City on the Move: A Festival of Young Artists in Transit. City on the Move will present the creative talent of young artists and performers ages 18 to 32 on the TTC – stations, subways, buses and streetcars - from August '09 till the summer of 2010.

Whether you express yourself through spoken word, dance, music, visual art, installations/sculptures, performance art, theatre and anything and everything in between, City on the Move is a great opportunity to make your art known to the public, and GET PAID for it.

SUBmissions:

Artists are to submit the following to nsheikh@toronto.ca:

- Full contact information
- A brief biography and or resume
- A description of their art and the piece(s) intended
- An electronic sample of their work along with any relevant web links where their art can be viewed – e.g. YouTube, Myspace, Facebook etc.

Toronto Cultural Services will review all submissions to create a program that reflects the diversity of Toronto's vibrant arts community. Only Toronto residents may apply. Preference will be given to artists from the City's priority and underserved neighbourhoods. Only artists selected to showcase their art will be contacted.

For further information contact Nawfal Sheikh at nsheikh@toronto.ca / 416-392-6371.

Please note City on the Move will also feature young artists and performers from outside the Call for Artists.
