

The Textures of a Lost Toronto

King Street, east of Toronto Street, with the jail, public stocks, and courthouse, 1835, by John Howard, City of Toronto Culture Division

John Howard's Documentary Art & Drawings 1830s - 1880s

February 5 - June 5, 2005

The Market Gallery
South St. Lawrence Market
95 Front Street East
Toronto, ON M5E 1C2

416-392-7604

Free Admission

Gallery hours: Wednesday - Friday: 10 a.m. - 4 p.m.

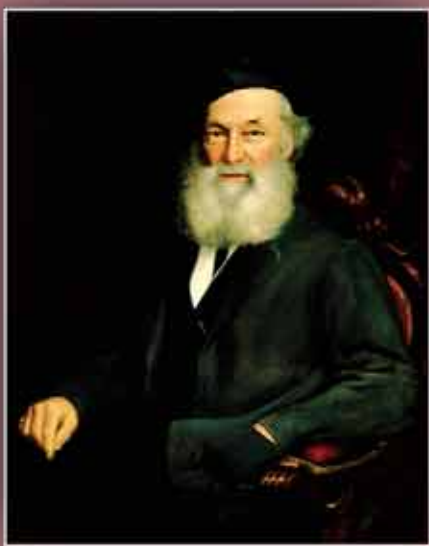

Saturday: 9 a.m. - 4 p.m.

Sunday: noon - 4 p.m.

Saturday, February 5, opening reception 1 - 3 p.m.

Light refreshments. Please R.S.V.P. to attend.

This exhibition is curated by Dr. Carl Benn, Chief Curator, Museum Services, Culture Division in partnership with Arts
Services and the Toronto Public Library (TRL).

John George Howard, 1874,
by John Bridgman and John Forster,
City of Toronto Culture Division