

Bikeway Network - Downtown - 2010 Program - Bike Box Pilot

Example of a bicycle box in New York

Bicycle boxes are used to improve cyclists' safety at intersections by allowing cyclists to wait in front of cars at red lights. Bicycle boxes reduce conflict between drivers turning right and bicyclists going straight. They also provide a protected waiting space for left-turning bicyclists.

Example of bicycle box at Harbord St and Manning Ave

