

CONSERVATION AND MAINTENANCE OF HERITAGE BUILDINGS LIST OF RESOURCES

- Parks Canada. Standards & Guidelines and Guidelines for the Conservation of Historic Places in Canada. (2010). www.parkscanada.gc.ca
- Ontario Ministry of Culture. Eight Guiding Principles in the Conservation of Built Heritage Properties. (see over)
http://www.culture.gov.on.ca/english/heritage/info_sheets/InfoSheet_8%20Guiding%20Principles.pdf
- Mark Fram, Well Preserved: the Ontario Heritage Foundation's Manual of Principles and Practice for Architectural Conservation. (2003, Boston Mills Press, Erin, Ontario)
- Canadian Association of Heritage Professionals, www.cahp-acecp.ca
- Harbord Village Heritage Conservation District Directory (heritage consultants) online:
<http://harbordvillage.com/heritageconservation>.
- U.S. Department of the Interior, National Park Service, Technical Preservation Services, Preservation Briefs, <http://www.nps.gov/tps/>

Researching Your Property:

- City of Toronto Inventory of Heritage Properties:
http://www.toronto.ca/heritage-preservation/heritage_properties_inventory.htm
(n.b.: just enter street name and number)
- City of Toronto Archives
255 Spadina Road, Toronto, Ontario M5R 2V3 (south of Casa Loma)
416-397-0778
Maps, City Directories, Assessment Rolls, Building Permits, Photographs.
Open: Monday to Friday - 9:00am to 4:30pm, most Saturdays - 10:00am to 4:30pm.
- Toronto Reference Library
4th Floor (Yonge St, N of Bloor)
Holds additional information to the City of Toronto Archives.
- Local Histories and Historical Societies
- Your Neighborhood