Domenic DiLuca passed away suddenly on August 26, 1999. He was a community minded individual who was instrumental in helping bring improvements to the Stanley Community Centre. He had been an organizing driving force and the President of the local Community Seniors Association. The local community has benefited by Domenic DiLuca's community involvement and his ongoing work with local Councillors and City officials.

Conclusions:

The Department recommends that Council give the direction to follow through with the proposed renaming of the Stanley Community Centre to the Domenic DiLuca Community Centre by using the criteria set out in the Parkland Naming Policy. The Department will report back to North York Community Council on February 15, 2000 on the results of the community consultation for the renaming of the community centre.
