Midtown Community Council Minutes
Wednesday, December 6, 2000

There being no further nominations, Councillor Pitfield moved that nominations be closed, which was carried.

Councillor Flint was unanimously elected Vice-Chair of the Midtown Community Council for a term of office to expire on May 31, 2002 and until her successor is elected.

1.3 Location of Midtown Community Council Meetings.

The Midtown Community Council discussed possible meeting locations for the Midtown Community Council subsequent to the meeting to be held in January 2001.

Suggestions put forward included:

- (i) recommending that all Community Councils meet on the same day and that the Midtown Community Council and North Toronto Community Council alternate between the Council Chamber and Committee Room 3 at the North York Civic Centre;
- (ii) utilizing North York Civic Centre as a “base” and having “roving” Community Council meetings on alternate meeting days by having meetings at a different location such as the Ontario Science Centre, Forest Hill Library, the Toronto Transit Commission facility and the North York Centre for the Performing Arts.

On motion by Councillor Mihevc the Community Council requested:

- (1) members to advise the Administrator, by Friday, December 8, 2000 of any other possible meeting venues in their respective wards for consideration; and
- (2) the City Clerk to submit a report to the meeting of the Midtown Community Council scheduled to be held in January 2001 with respect to possible locations for the Midtown Community Council meeting scheduled to be held in February 2001, and for alternate meeting days, such report to provide comment with respect to rental and other costs, accessibility, parking, etc.

(City Clerk – December 7, 2000)

The Midtown Community Council adjourned its meeting at 11:20 a.m.
