COMMUNICATIONS/REPORTS.

- 1(a). Mr. Daniel Egan, Manager
Cycling and Pedestrian Infrastructure Unit
(May 1, 2001)

Providing, for information, a replacement Meeting Report, for the April 30, 2001 special meeting of the Toronto Cycling Committee regarding the Toronto Bike Plan.

- 1(b). Mr. Daniel Egan, Manager
Cycling and Pedestrian Infrastructure Unit
(May 11, 2001)

Providing, for information, the revised schedule for the Toronto Bike Plan, including 2001 Cycling Projects and 2002 Priorities.

- 1(c). Mr. Ed Clark
 Alternate Representative from the Toronto Bicycle Network
 (May 11, 2001)

Advising that at the May 14, 2001 meeting of the Toronto Cycling Committee, he will be in attendance for Mr. Martin Koob, representative from the Toronto Bicycle Network; and requesting that the possible acquisition of the abandoned CN Leaside Branch (east of Leslie Street, York Mills to CP Line just north of Eglinton Avenue) by the City of Toronto, be discussed by the Toronto Cycling Committee, as part of the Toronto Bike Plan; and recommending support for the possible acquisition by the City of Toronto of the aforementioned lands.

11. PARKS POLICY ON SIGNS.

Ms. Nina Koskenoja, Co-Chair
Network Planning and Facilities Sub-Committee
 (May 7, 2001)

advising that, at the April 4, 2001 meeting of the Network Planning and Facilities Sub-Committee, the City policy on street names on signs at the entrances and exits to City parks, and specifically, Earl Bales Park, was discussed; and recommending that the Network Planning and Facilities Sub-Committee requested the Toronto Cycling Committee:

- (1) to refer the communication (March 2001) from Mr. Ron Hart, North York Cycling and Pedestrian Committee to staff in the Department of Economic Development, Parks and Recreation for action, as deemed appropriate.
- (2) to request staff of the Department of Economic Development, Parks and Recreation for a review on the City policy regarding specifying street names on signs at the entrance/exits of City parks.

12. RESIGNATION.

Mr. Steve Beiko
Member, Toronto Cycling Committee
 (May 13, 2001)

Advising that, as of 9:00 a.m., May 14, 2001, he is starting as a Road and Trail Safety Ambassador, and therefore, will no longer be eligible to serve as a member of Toronto Cycling Committee; wishing the Committee continued success in its work, and particularly, in the upcoming nominations process; and expecting to see the members of the Committee over the Spring and Summer 2001.

ANY OTHER MATTERS.
