(Speakers)

Report (May 17, 2005) from the Acting General Manager, Transportation Services, providing, as requested by Toronto and East York Community Council, certain information related to residential off-street parking (front yard parking and driveway widening).

Recommendation:

It is recommended that this report be received for information.

4. Demolition of a Designated Building (Bickford Residence/Guild Inn) 201 Guildwood Parkway (The Guild Inn) - Authority to Enter into a Heritage Easement Agreement, and Amendment to the Designation By-law (Ward 43 – Scarborough East)

Report (March 9, 2005) from the Commissioner of Economic Development, Culture and Tourism, recommending approval of the demolition of the Bickford Residence/Guild Inn located at 201 Guildwood Parkway; seeking authority to enter into a Heritage Easement Agreement; and amend the designation By-law to include the Sculpture Studio and Building 191.

Recommendations:

It is recommended that:

- (1) By-law 266-1999 (By-law designating 201 Guildwood Parkway under the Ontario Heritage Act) be amended to include Building 191 and the Sculpture Studio;

- (2) demolition of the Bickford Residence/Guild Inn be approved under Section 34 of the Ontario Heritage Act;
- (3) the Guild Inn Reuse Strategy prepared by Goldsmith Borgal & Company Ltd. Architects and Queen's Quay Architects International Inc. be approved and the principles contained therein be applied to the design of the new development, to the satisfaction of the Commissioner of Economic Development, Culture and Tourism;
- (4) the developer submit a Conservation Plan satisfactory to the Manager of Heritage Preservation Services prior to issuance of Site Plan approval;
- (5) the developer submit an Interpretation Plan for the Guild Inn site satisfactory to the Manager of Heritage Preservation Services prior to the issuance of any building permit for new development or a permit for demolition related to the Bickford residence portion of the existing development;
- (6) a Plan for the Nomenclature used on site, including the use of the name "Guild Inn" in the usual script and other appropriate naming of spaces within the new development that reference and reflect the site's history, be developed satisfactory to the Manager of Heritage Preservation Services prior to issuance of Site Plan approval;
- (7) the developer present final plans of the development to the Toronto Preservation Board prior to issuance of Site Plan approval;
- (8) the developer provide a Letter of Credit to the City in an amount satisfactory to the Commissioner of Economic Development, Culture and Tourism to implement the Conservation and Interpretation Plans prior to the issuance of any building permit for new development;
- (9) authority be granted by City Council for the execution of a Heritage Easement Agreement under Section 37 of the Ontario Heritage Act with the lessee of 201 Guildwood Parkway (The Guild Inn), using substantially the form of easement agreement prepared in February 1987 by the City Solicitor and on file with the City Clerk, subject to such amendments as may be deemed necessary by the City Solicitor to accommodate the elements and items referenced in Recommendation (10), in consultation with the Commissioner of Economic Development, Culture and Tourism;
- (10) the lessee enter into a Heritage Easement Agreement prior to the issuance of site plan approval to provide permanent protection for elements of the Bickford Residence retained in the new development, including those items specified in Attachment No. 6, and any other designated heritage features on the portion of the property to be leased by the City to the developer;

- (11) the developer retain a consultant archaeologist licensed by the Ministry of Culture to carry out a stage two archaeological assessment, if required, and mitigate through preservation or resource removal and documentation, adverse impacts to any significant archaeological resources found;
- (12) the consultant archaeologist submit a copy of the relevant assessment report(s) to Heritage Preservation Services;
- (13) no demolition, except for the 1965 Hotel Addition, construction, grading or other soil disturbances shall take place on the subject property prior to Heritage Preservation Services and the Ontario Ministry of Culture confirming in writing that all archaeological licensing and technical review requirements have been satisfied; and
- (14) the appropriate City Officials be authorized and directed to take the necessary action to give effect thereto.

4(a). Communication (April 8, 2005) from the Toronto Preservation Board.

(Deferred from May 3, 2005)

Recommendations:

The Toronto Preservation Board:

- (1) recommended to the Scarborough Community Council that City Council adopt the staff recommendations in the Recommendations Section of the report (March 9, 2005) from the Commissioner of Economic Development, Culture and Tourism; and
- (2) endorsed the following resolution by Robert Saunders:

“WHEREAS the Toronto Preservation Board realizes that the Bickford House and Guild Inn have been seriously neglected for several years by the former Metro and the City and its Lessees; and

WHEREAS the current condition of the historically designated structure is such that restoration and adaptive reuse may not be feasible; and

WHEREAS the current structure would require extensive renovations to bring it up to building and accessibility codes, renovations which would likely compromise the historical integrity of the building;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Toronto Preservation Board endorsed the following Scarborough Community Preservation Panel's resolution as amended:

'that the Developer, Members of the Scarborough Community Preservation Panel and City staff work together:

- (1) to ensure that as many as possible of the historic components, fixtures and furnishings of the building are preserved and used in any proposed new structure; and
- (2) to fully document the Bickford House and its various pre 1950s additions in the form of measured drawings, detailed photographs and other documentation as may be deemed appropriate to record the history of the historic designated building.' "

5. Assumption of Services – Cimas Construction Limited
