- “1. The General Manager, Homes for the Aged Division, enhance the Division’s operational reviews by:
 - (a) rescheduling delayed operational reviews when practically possible in order to ensure that the reviews, whether full or partial, are conducted within a three-year period; and
 - (b) requiring the homes to provide a clear implementation plan with specific timelines and responsibility for addressing the recommendations arising from the Division’s operational reviews.
2. The General Manager, Homes for the Aged Division, revise the process and banking form used for recording cash withdrawals from resident trust funds to include withdrawn amounts written in full and ensuring any alterations are initialled by the resident.
3. The General Manager, Homes for the Aged Division, ensure that all resident funds held in temporary bank accounts are recorded in the Homes for the Aged Trust Funds’ general ledger on a timely basis.
4. The General Manager, Homes for the Aged Division, in consultation with the City Treasurer, ensure that all interest earned on residents’ funds is credited to the residents’ trust accounts.
5. The General Manager, Homes for the Aged Division:
 - (a) implement verification procedures to ensure that payments for additional services authorized by residents such as hairdressing and tuck shop purchases are made at the proper amounts and for goods and services received by the residents; and
 - (b) take appropriate steps to determine the amount of overcharges for hairdressing services, identify the residents affected, and reimburse them accordingly.
6. The General Manager, Homes for the Aged Division, enhance the Division’s policies and procedures by requiring that reduced basic accommodation rates entered in the Resident Financial Management System be reviewed for accuracy by someone independent of the input function and evidence of such review be documented in writing.
7. The General Manager, Homes for the Aged Division, evaluate the feasibility of enhancing the Resident Financial Management System in order to facilitate:

- (a) uploading of management reports into other electronic format for further analysis;
