

Authority: Urban Environment and Development Committee Report No. 8, Clause No. 6
as adopted by City of Toronto Council on June 9, 10 and 11, 1999

Enacted by Council: June 11, 1999

CITY OF TORONTO

BY-LAW No. 338-1999

To amend By-law No. 28-1998, being “A By-law respecting the ‘Toronto Parking Authority’”, to change the qualifications of members of the Parking Authority.

WHEREAS, by the City of Toronto Act, 1997 (No. 2), the Council of the City shall pass a by-law to establish the size and composition of the Toronto Parking Authority and the qualifications of its members; and

WHEREAS City Council has approved changes to the standing committee structure to dissolve the Urban Environment and Development Committee and transfer its responsibilities to the Planning and Transportation Committee and the Works Committee, thereby requiring a change to By-law No. 28-1998; and

WHEREAS City Council has, despite the policy for citizen appointments, as contained in Clause 2 of Report No. 4 of the Special Committee to Review the Final Report of the Toronto Transition Team, adopted as amended by Council at its meeting of April 13 and 14, 1999, limited appointments to the Toronto Parking Authority to those persons who are, among other things, residents of the City of Toronto;

The Council of the City of Toronto HEREBY ENACTS as follows:

1. By-law No. 28-1998, being “A By-law respecting the ‘Toronto Parking Authority’”, is amended by deleting clause 1(a) and substituting the following:

1. (a) The Parking Authority shall consist of seven members appointed by Council, each of whom shall be a person qualified to be elected as a member of Council and a resident of the City of Toronto. Two members shall be members of Council, one of whom shall be a member of the Planning and Transportation Committee.

2. This by-law shall come into force on December 1, 2000.

ENACTED AND PASSED this 11th day of June, A.D. 1999.

CASE OOTES,
Deputy Mayor

NOVINA WONG,
City Clerk
