

Authority: Notice of Motion J(22), moved by Councillor Ashton, seconded by Councillor Chow, as adopted by City of Toronto Council on July 24, 25 and 26, 2001

Enacted by Council: July 26, 2001

CITY OF TORONTO

BY-LAW No. 726-2001

To amend City of Toronto Municipal Code Chapter 910, Parking Machines, with respect to Bus Parking Spaces.

The Council of the City of Toronto HEREBY ENACTS as follows:

1. City of Toronto Municipal Code Chapter 910, Parking Machines, is amended by:

A. Inserting in § 910-1A the following definition:

BUS – For the purposes of Subsections 9C, 10G and Section 10.1, is a vehicle designed for carrying ten (10) or more passengers.

B. Inserting a new § 910-9C as follows:

Despite any definitions to the contrary in Subsection 1A, Council may designate parking spaces for use by buses only and all other provisions of this chapter apply to those bus parking spaces with necessary modification.

C. Inserting a new § 910-10G as follows:

No person shall park a vehicle, other than a bus, in a parking space designated under Section 1.1 and set out in Schedule I at the end of this chapter.

ENACTED AND PASSED this 26th day of July, A.D. 2001.

CASE OOTES,
Deputy Mayor

JEFFREY A. ABRAMS,
Acting City Clerk
