

Authority: Planning and Growth Management Committee Item 7.1, adopted as amended, by City of Toronto Council on July 16, 17, 18 and 19, 2007
Enacted by Council: July 19, 2007

CITY OF TORONTO

BY-LAW No. 885-2007

To adopt City of Toronto Municipal Code Ch. 667, Residential Rental Property Demolition and Conversion Control, under s. 111 of the City of Toronto Act, 2006, and to make related amendments to Article II, Demolition Control of Ch. 363, Building Construction and Demolition, Ch. 415, Development of Land, Ch. 441, Fees and Charges, and Ch. 442, Fees and Charges, Administration of.

WHEREAS under section 111 of the City of Toronto Act, 2006 (the “Act”), the City may prohibit and regulate the demolition of residential rental properties and may prohibit and regulate the conversion of residential rental properties to a purpose other than the purpose of a residential rental property; and

WHEREAS under subsection 111(5) of the Act, if a permit to demolish a residential rental property is issued under section 111, no permit is required under section 8 of the Building Code Act, 1992 to demolish the property; and

WHEREAS the City wishes to exercise its powers under section 111 of the Act to protect rental housing in order to meet the housing requirements for current and future residents and to lessen the hardship caused to tenants by the demolition or conversion of rental housing; and

WHEREAS under sections 7 and 8 of the Act and the specific power in section 259, the City may pass a by-law imposing fees or charges on persons for services and activities provided or done by or on behalf of it; and

WHEREAS under sections 7 and 8 of the Act and the specific powers and restrictions respecting delegation in sections 20 to 24, the City may delegate its powers and duties under the Act to an officer or employee of the City, including administrative and quasi-judicial powers and legislative powers of a minor nature as provided in section 21; and

WHEREAS under section 366 of the Act, the City may pass by-laws providing that a person who contravenes a by-law of the City passed under this Act is guilty of an offence, and under section 370 may establish a system of fines for offences including special fines, in addition to the regular fine for an offence, that are designed to eliminate or reduce any economic advantage or gain from contravening the by-law; and

WHEREAS under subsections 384(3) and 385(4) of the Act, a by-law under section 366 may also provide that a person who contravenes an order (to discontinue the contravening activity) under subsection 384(1) or a (work) order under subsection 385(1) is guilty of an offence; and

WHEREAS under § 169-26 of the Municipal Code, the City Solicitor may process by-laws where an action is authorized by Council and if the recommendation to amend a by-law or introduce a bill has been omitted, and a related amendment is required to Chapter 442; and

WHEREAS under § 169-26 of the Municipal Code, the City Solicitor, in consultation with the City Clerk, may submit bills directly to Council to make technical amendments to the Municipal Code to correct technical errors;

The Council of the City of Toronto HEREBY ENACTS as follows:

1. The City of Toronto Municipal Code is amended by adding the following chapter:

Chapter 667

RESIDENTIAL RENTAL PROPERTY DEMOLITION AND CONVERSION CONTROL

ARTICLE I

General

§ 667-1. Definitions.

As used in this chapter, the following terms shall have the meanings indicated:

CHIEF PLANNER — The Chief Planner and Executive Director, City Planning.

CO-OWNERSHIP:

- A. An equity co-operative or other co-ownership form of housing where the residential property is:
 - (1) Ultimately owned or leased or otherwise held, directly or indirectly by more than one person where any such person, or a person claiming under such person, has the right to present or future exclusive possession of a dwelling unit in the residential property;
 - (2) For greater certainty and without restricting the generality of Subsection A(1):
 - (a) Owned or leased or otherwise held in trust or owned or leased or otherwise held by a partnership or limited partnership as partnership property, where any trustee, beneficiary, partner, general partner or limited partner, or other person claiming under such trustee, beneficiary, partner, general partner or limited partner, has the right to present or future exclusive possession of a dwelling unit in the residential property; or
 - (b) Ultimately owned or leased or otherwise held, directly or indirectly, by a corporation having more than one shareholder or member, where any such shareholder or member, or a person claiming under such shareholder or member, by reason of the ownership of shares in or being a member of the corporation, has the right to present or future exclusive possession of a unit in the residential property.

B. Does not include:

- (1) A condominium.
- (2) A residential building that is organized as a life lease project.
- (3) A non-profit housing co-operative under the Co-operative Corporations Act.

DEMOLITION — The demolition of all or part of a building and includes interior renovations or alterations that will result in a change to the number of:

- A. Dwelling units; or
- B. Dwelling units by bedroom type.

DWELLING UNIT — A self-contained set of rooms located in a building or structure that:

- A. Is operated as a single housekeeping unit, used or intended to be used as residential premises for one or more persons; and
- B. Contains kitchen and bathroom facilities that are intended for the use of the unit only.

GUIDELINES — Guidelines for applications for demolition or conversion approval under this chapter.

LIFE LEASE PROJECT — A life lease project as described in paragraph 1 of subsection 3(1) of Ontario Regulation 282/98, under the Assessment Act.

PRELIMINARY APPROVAL — The preliminary planning approval of an application under this chapter by the Chief Planner as described in § 667-16B.

RELATED APPLICATION:

- A. An application that provides for the demolition of residential rental property or the conversion of residential rental property to a purpose other than the purpose of a residential rental property, expressly or by necessary implication.
- B. For greater certainty, Subsection A includes, but is not limited to, an application for the following:
 - (1) A permit under section 8 or 10 of the Building Code Act, 1992.
 - (2) A demolition permit under section 33 of the Planning Act.
 - (3) A consent or permit to alter part of a property or to demolish or remove a building or structure under section 33, 34, 34.5 or 42 of the Ontario Heritage Act.

- (4) Approval or registration of a description for a proposed condominium or exemption from approval for a condominium, under section 9 of the Condominium Act, 1998.
 - (5) An amendment to the Official Plan under section 22 of the Planning Act.
 - (6) A zoning by-law amendment under section 34 of the Planning Act.
 - (7) A minor variance under section 45 of the Planning Act.
 - (8) Approval of plans and drawings under subsection 114(5) of the City of Toronto Act, 2006 or subsection 41(4) of the Planning Act.
 - (9) Approval of a plan of subdivision under section 51 of the Planning Act.
 - (10) A consent under section 53 of the Planning Act.
- C. Despite Subsection B(6), Subsection A does not include a City initiated general zoning by-law amendment to implement area land use studies and other general policies (for example, to implement the designation of a redevelopment or growth area of the City), except for any site specific exemptions or other site specific provisions at the request of a land owner.

RELATED GROUP OF BUILDINGS:

- A. Buildings that are under the same ownership and on the same parcel of land as defined in section 46 of the Planning Act; or
- B. Buildings that form part of the same application under this chapter or under a related application.

RENTAL UNIT:

- A. A dwelling unit used, or intended for use, for residential rental purposes, including:
 - (1) A dwelling unit that has been used for residential rental purposes and is vacant.
 - (2) A dwelling unit in a co-ownership that is or was last used for residential rental purposes.
- B. Does not include a dwelling unit that is:
 - (1) In a condominium registered under section 2 of the Condominium Act, 1998 or a predecessor of that section.
 - (2) In a building organized as a life lease project and the right to occupy the dwelling unit is based on a life lease interest.

RESIDENTIAL RENTAL PROPERTY — A building or related group of buildings containing one or more rental units, and includes all common areas and services and facilities available for the use of its residents.

SECTION 111 PERMIT — The permit issued by the Chief Planner or Chief Building Official after the final approval of an application under this chapter by the City as described in § 667-16.

§ 667-2. Application.

- A. This chapter does not apply to a residential rental property that:
- (1) Contains less than six dwelling units;
 - (2) Is a condominium governed by the Condominium Act, 1998; or
 - (3) Is organized as a life lease project.
- B. Except as provided in Subsection C, this chapter does not apply with respect to living accommodation described in section 5 (Exemptions from Act) of the Residential Tenancies Act, 2006.
- C. This chapter applies to living accommodation (a member unit of a non-profit housing co-operative) as described in clause 5(c) of the Residential Tenancies Act, 2006.

§ 667-3. Demolition prohibited.

No person shall demolish, or cause to be demolished, the whole or any part of a residential rental property unless the person has received a section 111 permit for the demolition of the residential rental property and except in accordance with the terms and conditions of the section 111 permit and any preliminary approval.

§ 667-4. Conversion prohibited.

- A. No person shall convert a residential rental property, or cause a residential rental property to be converted, to a purpose other than the purpose of a residential rental property unless the person has received a section 111 permit for the conversion of the residential rental property and except in accordance with the terms and conditions of the section 111 permit and any preliminary approval.
- B. For greater certainty and without limiting Subsection A, conversion of a residential rental property to a purpose other than a residential rental property includes:
- (1) Conversion as a result of a consent to sever land under section 53 of the Planning Act.

- (2) Conversion to:
 - (a) A non-residential use.
 - (b) Living accommodation other than dwelling units.
 - (c) A co-ownership, a condominium or a building organized as a life lease project.
 - (d) Freehold or other forms of ownership of dwelling units.

C. Conversion to co-ownership.

- (1) For the purposes of this section, the conversion from residential rental property to a co-ownership occurs:
 - (a) When the first lease or sale of an interest in residential rental property or of a share in a corporation owning or leasing any interest in residential rental property takes place that carries with it the right to occupy a specific unit in the residential rental property; or
 - (b) When a residential rental property is transferred or leased to a corporation of the type mentioned in Subsection A(2)(b) of the definition of co-ownership in § 667-1.
- (2) For the purposes of this subsection, where a lease or sale of a share or interest takes place, the lease or sale shall be deemed to have occurred on the day the agreement to enter into the lease or the agreement for sale was entered into.
- (3) For the purposes of this subsection, “lease or sale” means any arrangement or transaction that has the effect of transferring an interest in a co-ownership or in a corporation owning or leasing any interest in a co-ownership.

§ 667-5. Exemptions.

- A. Sections 667-3 and 667-4 do not apply if only a part of a residential rental property is proposed for demolition or conversion and that part does not contain any part of a dwelling unit.
- B. Section 667-4 does not apply if a residential rental property is subject to an application for a consent to sever under section 53 of the Planning Act and if after the proposed conveyance:
 - (1) Each parcel of land resulting from the severance will have six or more rental units; or

- (2) One or more parcels of land resulting from the severance will have six or more rental units and all the other parcels of land at the time of the application contained no dwelling units.

§ 667-6. Harassment of tenant.

No owner of residential rental property or person acting on the owner's behalf shall interfere with a tenant's reasonable enjoyment of a rental unit in the residential rental property with the intent of discouraging the participation of the tenant in the application or approval process described in Articles II and III or with the intent of otherwise facilitating the obtaining of the approval of Council or the Chief Planner on an application made under this chapter.

ARTICLE II
Application

§ 667-7. Application for approval.

- A. A person who wishes to demolish or convert residential rental property shall submit an application for approval in writing on a form prescribed by the Chief Planner, and shall supply any additional information relating to the application as required by the Chief Planner.
- B. The information provided under Subsection A shall be in a form approved by the Chief Planner, and the Chief Planner may require that a person, who in the opinion of the Chief Planner is qualified to do so, provide or verify the information to the satisfaction of the Chief Planner.
- C. No person shall knowingly furnish false or misleading information in any application under this chapter.

§ 667-8. Fees and charges.

- A. The processing fee for the application for approval set out in Schedule 16 of Appendix C of Chapter 441, Fees and Charges, shall be paid at the time the application is submitted to the City.
- B. If section 8 or 10 of the Building Code Act, 1992 apply to the proposed demolition or conversion, the applicant must also pay the fees required under § 363-6, Article I, Building Permit, of Chapter 363, Building Construction and Demolition at the times specified in the article, despite Subsection A and the issuance of a permit under this chapter instead of under section 8 of the Building Code Act, 1992 (as permitted by subsection 111(5) of the City of Toronto Act, 2006).

§ 667-9. Related application; notice of prohibition.

- A. If a person makes a related application, as described in Subsection B of the definition of related application in § 667-1, the person shall also file an application under this chapter without delay.

- B. If a related application is made with respect to a residential rental property for which approval is required under this chapter, the applicant shall provide written notice to the applicable approval authority and, in the case of an appeal or referral, to the Ontario Municipal Board or court.
- C. The notice required under Subsection B shall include a statement that the demolition or conversion is not permitted unless a section 111 permit has been given for the demolition or conversion under Chapter 667, Residential Rental Property Demolition or Conversion Control, of The City of Toronto Municipal Code.
- D. The notice required under Subsection B shall be filed at the time the application is filed with the approving authority or the referral or appeal is filed with the Ontario Municipal Board or the court.
- E. If this chapter applies to a related application under § 667-22, the notice shall be filed with the approval authority, Ontario Municipal Board or court, without delay.

§ 667-10. Withdrawal of application.

If the application is withdrawn before the Chief Planner or Council makes a decision, no further application under this chapter to approve the demolition or conversion of the residential rental property may be made within two years after the withdrawal, unless Council gives its consent.

§ 667-11. Notice of application.

- A. The applicant shall provide notice of the application to the tenants of the residential rental property to the satisfaction of the Chief Planner, and within 14 days after the Chief Planner has advised that the application is complete or within such other time period as determined by the Chief Planner.
- B. If the approval of the application is delegated to the Chief Planner under § 667-12, the notice under Subsection A shall include a statement on the City's policy where there are less than six rental units and relevant information on the application of the Residential Tenancies Act, 2006.

ARTICLE III

Approval of Application

§ 667-12. Approval by Chief Planner under delegated authority.

- A. The Chief Planner is authorized to approve an application to demolish all or a part of a residential rental property or to convert a residential rental property to a purpose other than the purpose of a residential rental property:
 - (1) If the residential rental property at the time of the application has six or more dwelling units, but less than six rental units.

- (2) If the residential rental property at the time of the application has six or more rental units, and:
 - (a) The combined number of existing rental units affected by the proposed demolition or conversion and any previous demolition or conversion activities within the preceding five-year period is less than six; and
 - (b) The proposed demolition or conversion will not reduce the number of rental units to less than six.

- B. For the purposes of Subsection A, the “five-year period” is calculated as follows:
 - (1) The five year period is the period of five years preceding the date of an application.
 - (2) For the purposes of Subsection B(1), the date of an application is deemed to be the earlier of:
 - (a) The date an application for approval of a demolition or conversion under this chapter has been filed with the Chief Planner and is considered complete for the purposes of the application, as determined by the Chief Planner; and
 - (b) The date a related application has been made or, if applicable, accepted as complete by the applicable approving authority.

- C. The Chief Planner shall consider the application not earlier than 14 days after the notice has been given to the tenants under § 667-11.

- D. The Chief Planner may impose conditions to the approval that relate to the following matters:
 - (1) A requirement that the owner of the residential rental property notify any tenants, who reside in the rental units affected by the changes permitted under the approval, of the relevant provisions in the Residential Tenancies Act, 2006.
 - (2) A requirement that the notification required under Subsection D(1) be given in a form and at a time satisfactory to the Chief Planner.
 - (3) A requirement that a condition to the approval shall be secured by an agreement with the City, that the agreement may include restrictions on the transfer, charge or other dealings with the lands unless the transferee, chargee or other party enters into a direct agreement with the City to assume all obligations of the original owner, and that all restrictions and agreements shall be to the satisfaction of the Chief Planner and City Solicitor.

- (4) A requirement that the applicant and successive owners of the residential rental property shall provide information from time to time sufficient to provide verification that the terms of the agreement are being met.
 - (5) The lapsing of the approval by the Chief Planner in accordance with any guidelines.
- E. Where the provisions of this section have been met, the Chief Planner shall issue a section 111 permit or give preliminary approval for the application under § 667-16.

§ 667-13. Referral to Council by Chief Planner; condominium conversion.

- A. Despite § 667-12A, the Chief Planner may refer an application to a community council or the appropriate standing committee, for Council's approval as set out in § 667-14, if, in the Chief Planner's opinion, the application should be considered by the community council or Council with a related application, or that the application has implications for more than one community council area or is of City wide interest.
- B. Despite § 667-12A, a councillor for a ward in which the residential rental property is located may, in writing, request the Chief Planner to submit an application for conversion to condominium to a community council or the appropriate standing committee, for Council's approval as set out in § 667-14.

§ 667-14. Approval by Council.

- A. If the approval of an application is not delegated to the Chief Planner under § 667-12, the Chief Planner shall submit a report respecting the application to the community council in which the residential rental property is located or the appropriate standing committee if the residential rental property is located in the geographic area of more than one community council.
- B. Before submitting the report required under Subsection A, City Planning division staff shall hold a community consultation meeting to review the impact of the proposal on the tenants of the residential rental property and matters under section 111 of the City of Toronto Act, 2006.
- C. The City Clerk shall provide notice of the community council or standing committee meeting, at which the report will be considered, to the following:
 - (1) The tenants of the residential rental property;
 - (2) Every owner of land within 120 metres of the subject residential rental property, and sections 6(3), (4) and (5) of Ontario Regulation 545/06 under the Planning Act, apply with necessary modification;
 - (3) To any other party who has given the City Clerk a written request for the notice of the community council or standing committee meeting; and

- (4) Where no related application has been made under the Planning Act, to other occupants within 120 metres of the subject residential rental property as determined by the Chief Planner.

- D. The community council or standing committee shall recommend to Council whether to refuse or approve the application, including any conditions.

- E. If the residential rental property is located in the geographic area of more than one community council, notice of the report will be given to the councillor of any ward in which the residential rental property is located.

- F. Council may refuse the application or approve the application, and may impose conditions on the approval and authorize the Chief Building Official or Chief Planner to issue a section 111 permit under § 667-16.

§ 667-15. Conditions.

Without limiting the generality of § 667-14F, the conditions that may be imposed on the approval of the application may include:

- A. Conditions with respect to the impact on the supply of rental housing or tenants, for example:
 - (1) A requirement that the owner of the residential rental property notify any tenants, who reside in rental units affected by the changes permitted under the approval, of the relevant provisions in the Residential Tenancies Act, 2006.
 - (2) In the case of a demolition, requirements to replace the rental units with rental units at similar rents, and for tenant relocation and other assistance, including the right to return to the replacement rental housing.
 - (3) In the case of a conversion to a condominium, requirements relating to the cost impacts on tenants.

- B. Conditions with respect to the applicant's entitlement to claim or act under any of the following until the conditions imposed have been satisfied or secured by an agreement registered on title to each property to which the agreement relates, to the satisfaction of the Chief Planner:
 - (1) A permit under subsection 8(1) or section 10 of the Building Code Act, 1992 for construction, demolition or conversion of a building.
 - (2) A demolition permit under section 33 of the Planning Act.
 - (3) A consent or permit to alter part of a property or to demolish or remove a building or structure under section 34, 34.5 or 42 of the Ontario Heritage Act.

- (4) Approval or registration of a description for a proposed condominium under section 51 of the Planning Act, or an exemption from approval for a condominium, under section 9 the Condominium Act, 1998.
- (5) A consent under section 53 of the Planning Act, except for provisional consent that is conditional on receiving a section 111 permit under this chapter.
- C. A requirement that other conditions to the approval shall be secured by an agreement with the City, that the agreement may include restrictions on the transfer, charge or other dealings with the lands unless the transferee, chargee or other party enters into a direct agreement with the City to assume all obligations of the original owner, and that all restrictions and agreements shall be to the satisfaction of the Chief Planner and City Solicitor.
- D. A requirement that the applicant and successive owners of the residential rental property shall provide information from time to time sufficient to provide verification that the terms of the agreement are being met.
- E. Conditions providing for the lapsing of the approval in accordance with any guidelines.

§ 667-16. Final approval and section 111 permit.

If Council or the Chief Planner under § 667-12 approves an application under this chapter, and unless Council provides otherwise:

- A. Except as provided in Subsection B, the Chief Planner is authorized to issue a section 111 permit for the conversion after all the conditions to Council's approval under § 667-14F or imposed by the Chief Planner under § 667-12D have been satisfied or secured to the satisfaction of the Chief Planner.
- B. In the case of a demolition application or a conversion application that is also subject to section 8 or 10 of the Building Code Act, 1992:
 - (1) The Chief Planner is authorized to give preliminary approval to the application after all the conditions to Council's approval under § 667-14F or imposed by the Chief Planner under § 667-12D have been satisfied or secured to the satisfaction of the Chief Planner.
 - (2) After the Chief Planner has given preliminary approval under Subsection B (1), the Chief Building Official is authorized to issue a section 111 permit for the demolition or conversion.

§ 667-17. Application for revision to conditions.

- A. If the owner of a residential rental property applies for revisions to the conditions of approval, the Chief Planner may treat the request as a new application under this chapter or may otherwise require the owner to comply with the notice and meeting requirements of this chapter.

- B. The community council or standing committee will consider and make recommendations to Council on the proposed revisions only after a report has been submitted to the community council or standing committee by the Chief Planner.

667-18. Revocation; deemed revocation.

- A. If a section 111 permit was issued under § 667-16B, the Chief Building Official may revoke the section 111 permit and in all other cases, Council, or, if an application was approved by the Chief Planner under § 667-12, the Chief Planner may revoke a section 111 permit if:
- (1) The section 111 permit was issued or any preliminary approval was given, on mistaken, false or incorrect information;
 - (2) The conditions to the section 111 permit or any preliminary approval are not complied with; or
 - (3) The owner of the residential rental property or other holder of a section 111 permit or preliminary approval has contravened this chapter.
- B. Where a demolition permit has been issued under this chapter and the building permit for the new construction is revoked under the Building Code Act, 1992, the demolition permit under this chapter shall be deemed to be revoked and this chapter shall apply to any subsequent application for a demolition permit in respect of the residential rental property for which the original demolition permit was issued as if the original application had not been made and the original building permit had not been issued.
- C. Subsection B does not apply if the residential rental property has been demolished under a section 111 permit issued under this chapter before the revocation of the building permit for the new construction.

ARTICLE IV
Miscellaneous

§ 667-19. Offences.

- A. Every person who contravenes a provision of this chapter is guilty of an offence.
- B. Every director or officer of a corporation who knowingly concurs in a contravention of this chapter by the corporation is guilty of an offence.
- C. Every person who fails to comply with a term or condition of a preliminary approval or section 111 permit under this chapter is guilty of an offence.
- D. Every person who contravenes an order under subsection 384(1) or 385(1) of the City of Toronto Act, 2006, is guilty of an offence.

§ 667-20. Penalty.

Every person convicted of an offence under this chapter is liable to a maximum fine of not more than $100,000.

§ 667-21. Special penalty re monetary benefit.

- A. The court that convicts a person of an offence under this chapter, in addition to any other penalty imposed by the court, may increase a fine imposed upon the person by an amount equal to the amount of the monetary benefit acquired by or that accrued to the person as a result of the commission of the offence, despite § 667-20 and any maximum fine elsewhere provided.
- B. For the purposes of Subsection A, “monetary benefit” includes any economic advantage or gain from contravening this chapter.

§ 667-22. Transition.

The chapter applies, with necessary modifications, to a proposal for demolition or conversion of residential rental property in any related application made on or after January 1, 2007, subject to the following exceptions:

- A. If a determination has already been made by the applicable approving authority before July 19, 2007; or
- B. In the case of applications under section 8 of the Building Code Act, 1992, for interior renovations as described in the definition of demolition in § 667-1, the chapter applies to any application made after July 19, 2007.

2. Municipal Code Chapter 363.

Article II, Demolition Control, of Chapter 363, Building Construction and Demolition of The City of Toronto Municipal Code is amended by adding the following:

§ 363-11.1. Co-ordination with residential rental property demolition and conversion control by-law.

- A. The Chief Building Official shall make a preliminary assessment to determine if Chapter 667, Residential Rental Property Demolition and Conversion Control, applies to the proposed demolition, except that the Chief Planner shall make all assessments on the application of § 667-2B.
- B. If the Chief Building Official is of the opinion that Chapter 667 may apply, the application shall be forwarded to the Chief Planner to make a final determination on the application of Chapter 667.

- C. Despite § 363-12, if the Chief Planner has determined that approval is also required under Chapter 667, the Chief Building Official may only issue a demolition permit under this article after preliminary approval is granted under Chapter 667, unless Council provides otherwise.
- D. Despite Subsection C and § 363-12, if the proposed demolition application is delegated to the Chief Building Official under this article but not delegated to the Chief Planner under § 667-11 of Chapter 667, the Chief Planner in consultation with the Chief Building Official may report on the two applications to the community council or standing committee for Council's approval.
- E. The Chief Building Official may issue one demolition permit for the purposes of this article and Chapter 667.

3. Municipal Code Chapter 415.

Chapter 415, Development of Land, of The City of Toronto Municipal Code is amended by deleting § 415-17, (the codified version of section 4 of By-law No. 229-2000) and substituting the following:

§ 415-17. Draft condominium approvals.

- A. The authority for the giving of draft condominium approvals under section 9 of the Condominium Act, 1998, except for applications involving the conversion of six or more rental housing units and exemptions from draft approval as appropriate, is delegated to the Chief Planner and his or her representatives.
- B. Despite Subsection A, Council shall retain all powers and authority under section 9 of the Condominium Act, 1998, and at any time prior to approval of a condominium conversion application of less than six rental housing units, a councillor for a ward in which the property is located may, in writing, request the Chief Planner to submit the application under section 9 to the appropriate community council or standing committee and to Council for its approval.

4. Municipal Code Chapter 441.

Schedule 16, Planning, of Appendix C of Chapter 441, Fees and Charges, of The City of Toronto Municipal Code is amended by adding the following:

5. Municipal Code Chapter 442.

Section 442-9 of Chapter 442, Fees and Charges, Administration of, of The City of Toronto Municipal Code is amended as follows:

- A. Subsection D is deleted and the following substituted (to re-format Subsection D to reflect the Municipal Code style)
- D. Annual adjustment.
- (1) Despite § 441-4, the values in Appendix C, Column IV, Schedule 16 of Chapter 441 for which an annual adjustment is indicated in Column V, may be adjusted annually, effective January 1, at a rate equal to the applicable annual wage adjustment increase.
- (2) In years where the wage adjustment increase is not known by January 1, § 441-4 of the Municipal Code applies.
- B. By adding the following:
- E. In the case of an application for a conversion or other consent under Chapter 667, Residential Rental Property Demolition and Conversion Control, that is not delegated to the Chief Planner as indicated in Schedule 16, Planning, of Appendix C of Chapter 441, Fees and Charges, and the conversion or consent proposal also requires an official plan amendment for the same proposal, the applicant is only required to pay the fee applicable to the official plan application for an official plan amendment for the same conversion or consent proposal.
- F. If Subsection E applies, the applicable fees are to be paid at the time of the filing of the application under Chapter 667, even if the official plan applicant has not yet been filed.

ENACTED AND PASSED this 19th day of July, A.D. 2007.
