

Authority: Executive Committee Item EX7.18, as adopted by City of Toronto Council on July 16, 17 and 18, 2019 and Section 169-5.2A of City of Toronto Municipal Code, Chapter 169, City Officials

CITY OF TORONTO

BY-LAW 1174-2019

To amend City of Toronto Municipal Code Chapter 67, Fair Wage to update the Fair Wage Chapter to reflect the new reporting structure.

Whereas as a result of a certain City corporate organizational changes the reporting structure for the Manager, Fair Wage Office is being changed; and

Whereas the Manager, Fair Wage Office will now report to the Chief Purchasing Officer rather than to the Executive Director, Human Resources for administrative purposes and the Fair Wage Chapter should be amended to reflect the new reporting structure;

The Council of the City of Toronto enacts:

1. Municipal Code, Chapter 67, Fair Wage, is amended by deleting in Section 67-2.A the reference to "Executive Director, Human Resources" and replacing it with "Chief Purchasing Officer", so that the amended Section reads as follows:

§ 67-2. Appointment of Manager, Fair Wage Office; reporting.

- A. The person appointed Manager, Fair Wage Office for the City of Toronto, is deemed to be under the control of the Chief Purchasing Officer for administrative purposes, including routine personnel matters such as provision of clerical services, attendance, vacation scheduling, sick pay authorization, increment recommendations, recording and control of budget allocation and petty cash authorization.

Enacted and passed on July 18, 2019.
