CITY OF TORONTO

BY-LAW 510-2024

To amend City of Toronto Municipal Code Chapter 937, Temporary Closing of Highways, to delegate to the General Manager of Transportation Services the authority to temporarily close portions of the Don Valley Parkway to vehicular traffic for specified time periods over various time periods for various purposes related to the Ontario Line Minton Place Portal.

The Council of the City of Toronto enacts:

1. City of Toronto Municipal Code Chapter 937, Temporary Closing of Highways, is amended:
 - a. by inserting a new Section 937-3.35 as follows:

"§ 937-3.35. Closures of the Don Valley Parkway to facilitate the removal of vegetation, mechanical slope stabilization, installation of a safety barrier and ground monitoring system related to the Ontario Line Minton Place Portal.

Despite any other by-law, the General Manager of Transportation Services may, to facilitate the removal of vegetation, mechanical slope stabilization, installation of a safety barrier and ground monitoring system related to the Ontario Line Minton Place Portal, temporarily close to vehicular traffic:

- A. the northbound outside lane and adjacent pavement shoulder on the Don Valley Parkway, between 600 metres south of Beechwood Drive and 350 metres north of the Leaside Bridge, from 11:00 p.m. of one day to 5:00 a.m. on the following day for up to and including 47 nights between July 1, 2024 and July 1, 2025, inclusive; and
- B. the southbound outside lane and adjacent pavement shoulder on the Don Valley Parkway, between 450 metres north of Leaside Bridge and 300 metres south of Beechwood Drive, from 11:00 p.m. of one day to 5:00 a.m. on the following day for up to and including 10 nights between July 26, 2024 and December 15, 2024, inclusive."

Enacted and passed on May 23, 2024.
