CITY OF TORONTO

BY-LAW 1150-2026

To amend City of Toronto Municipal Code Chapter 79, Fire Services; Chapter 349, Animals; Chapter 395, Clothing Drop Boxes; Chapter 459, Filming; Chapter 466, Fireworks; Chapter 470, Fire Safety Boxes; Chapter 485, Graffiti; Chapter 517, Idling of Vehicles and Boats; Chapter 546, Licensing of Vehicles-For-Hire; Chapter 548, Littering and Dumping; Chapter 608, Parks; Chapter 659, Refrigerators and Other Appliances, Abandoned; Chapter 719, Snow and Ice Removal; Chapter 743, Streets and Sidewalks, Use of; Chapter 758, Taxation, Municipal Accommodation Tax; Chapter 760, Taxation, Municipal Land Transfer Tax; Chapter 771, Taxation, Third Party Sign Tax; Chapter 880, Fire Routes; and Chapter 918, Parking on Residential Front Yards and Boulevards, in respect of increasing maximum fines for offences and establishing new offences for a director or officer of a corporation who knowingly concurs in a corporate contravention of the aforementioned Chapters, where previously not included therein.

Whereas under sections 7 and 8 of the City of Toronto Act, 2006 (the "Act"), the City is provided with the capacity, rights, powers and privileges of a natural person for the purpose of exercising its authority, under the Act; and may pass by-laws on matters within the specified spheres of authority; and

Whereas under section 8(2), paras. 5, 6, 8, 9, 10, and 11, of the Act, the City may pass by-laws in respect of the health, safety and well-being of persons; the economic, social and environmental well-being of the City; protection of persons and property, including consumer protection; animals; structures, including fences and signs; and, business licensing; and

Whereas subsection 8(1) of the Act, provides the City with broad authority to provide any service or thing the City considers necessary or desirable for the public; and

Whereas section 8(2) of the Act authorizes the City of Toronto to pass by-laws in respect of certain matters, including: the health, safety and well-being of persons; and protection of persons and property, including consumer protection; and

Whereas section 8(3) of the Act provides that a by-law in respect of the health, safety and well-being of persons may: regulate or prohibit respecting the matter; require persons to do things respecting the matter; and provide for a system of licenses respecting the matter; and

Whereas the City provides the fire-fighting and fire protection services to the citizens of Toronto as a necessary and desirable service; and

Whereas the City previously enacted regulations establishing standards concerning the location and conditions with respect to the storage of fire safety plans as to assist in the preservation of health, safety and well-being of persons; and protection of persons and property; and

Whereas the City previously enacted regulations respecting animals, including prohibited animals, the care of animals, the registration and licensing of dogs and cats, dangerous dogs and the adoption, seizure and sheltering of animals; and

Whereas the City previously enacted regulations respecting clothing drop boxes as a necessary and desirable service, for the protection of the health and safety of the public and to contribute to the City of Toronto's appearance, image and attractiveness; and

Whereas the City previously enacted regulations respecting the permitting of the practice of location filming in the City of Toronto and with respect to regulating the use of highways, properties and parks under the City's jurisdiction for purposes of location filming; and,

Whereas the City previously enacted regulations to ensure the safe sale and discharge of fireworks within the geographic limits of the City of Toronto; and

Whereas the City previously enacted regulations to protect the economic, social and environmental well-being of the City from graffiti vandalism while supporting graffiti art and other street art that adds vibrancy and artistic delight to City streets; and

Whereas the City has previously enacted regulations governing the licensing of taxicabs, limousines, and private transportation vehicles in Toronto; and

Whereas the City previously enacted regulations respecting littering and dumping; and

Whereas the City previously enacted regulations establishing standards and regulations concerning the use and enjoyment of parks provided by the City for the public's enjoyment as a necessary or desirable resource for the public; and

Whereas the City previously enacted regulations to regulate the keeping, storage and disposal of unused ice boxes, refrigerators, freezers, clothes washers or dryers, and other similar appliances or containers; and

Whereas the City provides and maintains public streets, sidewalks and other public spaces as necessary and desirable municipal services for the safe and orderly movement of persons and vehicles and the enjoyment of the public realm; and

Whereas the City previously enacted regulations respecting the use of streets, sidewalks and other public highways within the City, including provisions to regulate activities occurring on streets and sidewalks, to protect the safe and orderly use of public spaces, respecting the clearing of snow and ice to promote safe access and travel for users of the public right of way, and respecting parking on public rights of way and residential front yards and boulevards; and

Whereas the City has previously adopted a municipal accommodation tax to be imposed on purchasers of transient accommodations within the City of Toronto for the purpose of supplementing the revenue of the City, pursuant to its power to impose taxes as provided for in Part X under the Act, and adopted tax design features of the municipal accommodation tax, including administration, collection and enforcement procedures; and

Whereas the City has previously adopted a municipal land transfer tax to be imposed on persons tendering for registration a conveyance within the City of Toronto, pursuant to its power to impose taxes as provided for in Part X under the Act, and adopted tax design features of the municipal land transfer tax, including administration, collection and enforcement procedures; and

Whereas the City has previously adopted a third party sign tax to be imposed on owners of third party signs located within the City of Toronto for the purpose of supplementing the revenue of the City, pursuant to its power to impose taxes as provided for in Part X under the Act, and adopted tax design features of the third party sign tax, including administration, collection and enforcement procedures; and

Whereas Part X, specifically subsection 267(1) of the Act provides that the City may, by by-law, impose a tax in the City if the tax is a direct tax, if the by-law satisfies the criteria described in subsection 267(3) and if such other conditions as may be prescribed are also satisfied; and

Whereas the City has previously adopted a single by-law for the purpose of designating private roads as municipal fire routes in the City along which no parking of vehicles shall be permitted and providing for the removal and impounding of any vehicle parked or left along any of the fire routes at the expense of the owner of the vehicle; and

Whereas Part XV (Enforcement) of the Act, restricts the establishment of fines of by-laws of the City only where the provisions of any other Act, other than the Provincial Offences Act, provide for the fines for a contravention of a city by-law; and

Whereas no provisions of any other Act, other than the Provincial Offences Act, provide for the fines for a contravention of the specified city by-laws which are the subject to the current amendments; and

Whereas under section 366 of the Act, the City may pass by-laws providing that a person who contravenes a by-law of the City passed under this Act is guilty of an offence; and

Whereas under section 366(3) of the Act, a by-law established under this section may provide that a director or officer of a corporation who knowingly concurs in the contravention of a by-law by the corporation is guilty of an offence; and

Whereas under section 370 of the Act, section the City may establish a system of fines for offences under a by-law passed under the Act, subject to the maximum fine shall not exceed $100,000; and

Whereas the City believes it is appropriate for the effective enforcement and regulation of various by-laws of the City to establish that maximum fines for offences to not exceed $100,000, and that offences be created for director or officer of a corporation who knowingly concurs in the contravention of specific City by-laws by the corporation;

The Council of the City of Toronto hereby enacts as follows:

1. City of Toronto Municipal Code Chapter 79, Fire Services, is amended as follows:
 - A. Deleting the phrase “the penalty established by the Provincial Offences Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. P.33 (as may be amended or replaced from time to time), being on the date of enactment of this chapter, a fine not exceeding $5,000 exclusive of costs” from section 79-22 and replacing it with the phrase “a penalty of no more than $100,000.”, so it now reads as follows:

“Every person who contravenes any of §§ 79-12 and 79-13, 79-14A, 79-15 and 79-16, 79-17A and 79-19 to 79-21, inclusive, or who contravenes an order made under § 79-14B is guilty of an offence and on conviction is liable to a penalty of no more than $100,000.”
 - B. Adding the following new section as section 79-22.1. thereto:

“§79-22.1. Offences, Director or Officer.
