4. The appropriate officials be authorized to take the necessary actions to give effect thereto.
5. The volunteers from the sector who participated on the PRTD Steering and Advisory Committees as well as the Ministry of Tourism and Employment Ontario be thanked for their contributions to the project.

Financial Impact

There are no direct financial implications resulting from the adoption of this report.

Summary

This report summarizes the key findings from a comprehensive assessment of Toronto's strengths and weaknesses as a tourist destination. The findings were evaluated and discussed with industry stakeholders to develop recommendations for achieving greater prosperity as a tourist destination in the future.

The research and evaluation process was industry-led. The project was highly collaborative, with an industry steering committee providing direction. Staff from EDCT-Tourism managed the project, and an experienced private consultant and Ministry of Tourism staff provided advice and guidance. Approximately 100 representatives from across the sector were consulted in developing the recommendations. They were validated at a presentation to the industry on December 10, 2007.

The report explains why a strong tourism sector is needed to support Toronto's overall success as a globally competitive city. Its recommendations are aligned with those that emerged from the "Agenda for Prosperity: A Prospectus for a Great City".

Implementing the recommendations will require continued collaboration across the industry and with the public sector. The report describes the implementation process that has been ongoing since the research was completed in December 2007. The City of Toronto has an important role to play in this process. The recommendations of the report seek City Council's endorsement of the recommendations and authorization for staff to discuss it with other City divisions, agencies, boards and commissions to determine how they can best support the strength of Toronto's tourism sector.

Proposal to Nominate Fort York for Inscription in the World Heritage List of UNESCO

(April 28, 2008) Report from Deputy Mayor Joe Pantalone, Co-Chair of The City of Toronto Bicentennial Commemoration of the War of 1812 Steering Committee, and the Executive Director, Toronto Culture.

Committee Recommendations

The Economic Development Committee recommends that:

1. City Council support, in principle, the declaration of Fort York National Historic Site as a UNESCO World Heritage Site.
2. Toronto Culture staff, with the involvement of The City of Toronto Bicentennial Commemoration of the War of 1812 Steering Committee, undertake all actions and research within existing budgets in 2008 to further the UNESCO World Heritage Site Designation.
3. Toronto Culture staff report, for consideration, through the 2009 Budget Process, on any operating and capital budget requirements for 2009 and beyond.

Financial Impact

There are no immediate financial implications arising from the adoption of this report to the 2008 Operating Budget Toronto Culture.

Once the work required to advance Fort York for consideration as a UNESCO World Heritage Site can be planned in detail, Toronto Culture staff will report through the 2009 Budget Process, on any operating and capital budget requirements for 2009 and beyond.

The Deputy City Manager and Chief Financial Officer has reviewed this report and agrees with the financial impact information.

Summary

Fort York National Historic Site has the largest collection of authentic War of 1812 structures in Canada. An unusually rich archaeological resource, Fort York connects the founding decades of the City of Toronto with the battle of York, remnants of the original eighteenth and nineteenth century landscape, and Toronto's first military cemetery. For these reasons, Fort York is a prime candidate for designation by the UNESCO as a World Heritage Site. There are presently no sites designated in the City of Toronto.

The purpose of this report is to have City Council officially support the effort to have Fort York declared a UNESCO World Heritage site.

The City of Toronto Bicentennial Commemoration of the War of 1812 Steering Committee was struck by City Council at its meeting of September 26 and 27, 2007. The Steering Committee is currently developing the plan required to nominate Fort York for inscription in the UNESCO World Heritage List. The nomination will be a significant project in the City of Toronto's Commemoration of the Bicentennial of the War of 1812.

Terms of Board members are coincident with Council terms. In 2006, a recruitment process was initiated to appoint the nine citizen members of the board. Applications were made available through existing boards and committees, community centres and libraries, were advertised in the U of T Bulletin, on the City's website and on the websites of the Volunteer Centre of Toronto and Charity Village. The Multicultural History Society of Ontario was hired to recruit and submit the names of qualified candidates from the diverse communities across the City, and a public information session was held. Review panels were established for each board to consider applications, conduct interviews and make recommendations regarding the candidates best qualified to fill the vacancies.

Schedule A to Chapter 103, Heritage, Toronto Municipal Code, states that the Fort York Community Museum Management Board be comprised of seven citizen members, two representatives from the Friends of Fort York, one representative from the Toronto District School Board, one representative from the Toronto Catholic School Board and one to two Members of City Council.

Business Improvement Area (BIA) Street Festivals and Related TTC Charges

(May 13, 2008) Letter from Councillor Paula Fletcher, Ward 30, Toronto-Danforth.

Decision Advice and Other Information

The Economic Development Committee referred the letter from Councillor Paula Fletcher respecting Business Improvement Area Street Festivals and related TTC charges to the Deputy City Manager, Cluster A, for consideration and report as part of the policy review regarding the waiving of fees for both recurring and non-recurring special events.

Summary

The City's 65 BIAs produce dozens of not-for-profit street festivals and special events each year. In doing so, they help create and maintain vibrant retail areas, attract tourists and improve the appeal and liveability of the City and its neighbourhoods. Their efforts in this regard are extraordinary.

Over the past several years, many BIAs have expressed concern regarding the costs charged by the TTC to re-route services around BIA street festival locations. These charges often account for a significant portion of the event budget (at times as much as one-third), and have put tremendous pressure on BIAs to cut costs by decreasing event advertising expenditures, limiting paid attractions and performers, and by reducing the duration of events. Tight sponsorship markets make it increasingly difficult for BIAs to generate the revenue necessary to cover such TTC charges, especially for newer events, and for those scaled-down or weakened by the cost-cutting measures noted above.

It is time for the City, the TTC and the Toronto Association of BIAs (TABIA) to undertake a dialogue regarding this issue and develop recommendations on how to reduce or mitigate the impacts of TTC event-related charges.

I would like to request that the Deputy City Manager – Cluster A investigate the financial impacts of TTC charges related to BIA street events as part of the policy review regarding the waiving of fees for both recurring and non-recurring special events.
