MEMORANDUM

DATE: April 1, 2010

TO: Chair and Members of the Municipal Licensing
And Standards Committee

RE: REGULATION OF COMMERCIAL PARKING LOTS

The City of Toronto has a bylaw that regulates commercial parking lots.

It is rarely enforced and there have been some committee decisions regarding the right to issue phoney look-alike parking tickets. They have created an uneven playing field.

At least one company has discovered a way to circumvent our prohibition of these tickets as a result of signage they have installed into parking lots.

It's time we harmonized this parking bylaw.

RECOMMENDATION:

That this matter be sent to staff with a report back to Committee in June, 2010.

Thank you.
