Subject: Parking Amendments – Yonge Street between Crescent Road and Woodlawn Avenue

City Council at its meeting of July 16, 2013, amended the parking regulations on both sides of Yonge Street, between Crescent Road and Woodlawn Avenue to allow parking during the evening off-peak periods and on Saturdays and Sundays.

Since Council considered the amendment, I have been contacted by community members with concerns about the impacts these changes will have, particularly with regards to pedestrian and cyclist safety. After further consultation with local residents, Cycle Toronto, and the Rosedale Main Street BIA, a number of motions have been created as part of a community crafted solution.

Recommendation:
