Subject: Request to Establish a Cross-Divisional Staff Table on York-Beltline Issues & Initiatives (Ward 15)

Summary

The purpose of this motion is to coordinate City departments' and agency's efforts to revitalize the York-Beltline Trail utilising existing resources.

Recommendation

That North York Community Council:

1. Direct the City Manager to establish a cross-divisional table with staff from appropriate divisions in City Planning, Transportation Services, Parks, Forestry & Recreation, and the Toronto Community Housing Corporation to jointly implement previously identified and funded initiatives related to the York-Beltline Trail including, but not limited to:

- Extending of the trail from Walter Saunders Park to Marlee Ave.
- Extending of the trail from Marlee Ave to Allen Rd.
- Constructing a new accessible gateway trail entrance off Castlefield Ave.
- Implementing heritage, cycling, and general trail signage
- Refurbishing of the Dufferin St. overpass
- Potentially relocating community gardens at 855 Roselawn Ave. (TCHC)

Sincerely,

Josh Colle
Councillor, Ward 15, Eglinton-Lawrence
