

Showing the building known historically as the Wilton Court Hotel on the northeast corner of Dundas Street East and George Street.

On George Street, north of Dundas Street East, the late 19th century house form building known historically as the Henry Tasker House is attached to the rear (north) side of the hotel.

(Photographs, Heritage Preservation Services, 2016)