Implementation of New Before-and-After School Programs Guidelines and Policies - Update

Committee Decision

The City-School Boards Advisory Committee recommends to the Executive Committee that:

1. City Council request the Chair of the City-School Boards Advisory Committee to ask Toronto District School Board staff in Children's Services to report to the next meeting of the City-School Boards Advisory Committee on the capital request/expansion plans for child care and before-and-after school programs in Toronto Schools.
2. City Council request the Chair of the City-School Boards Advisory Committee to request the Ministry of Education to send a representative to City-School Boards Advisory Committee meetings.
3. City Council request the General Manager, Children's Services to forward to the Chairs of four School Boards the City's 2017 Child Care Growth Strategy for distribution to Trustees for information.

Decision Advice and Other Information

The following gave a presentation on Before-and-After School Programs, Kindergarten to Grade 6:

- Colleen Russell-Rawlins, Executive Superintendent, Toronto District School Board;
- Kevin Malcolm, Superintendent of Education, Toronto Catholic District School Board; and
- Karen Gray, Director, Service System Planning and Policy Development, Toronto Children's Services

Summary

Over the past seven months, staff in the Toronto District School Board, Toronto Catholic School Board, Toronto Children's Services, Authorized Recreation Providers and child care operators have been collaborating on the expansion of before-and-after school programs for 4 to 12 year old children aligned with the regulations and policy. In this presentation by Colleen Russell-Rawlins, Executive Superintendent Learning Centre 3 and Responsible for Early Years at the Toronto District School Board, will provide an overview of the status of Before-and-

After School Programs in the Toronto District School Board and raise awareness of the challenges faced moving forward.
