PROPOSAL

The City of Toronto is proposing to enact a zoning by-law to permit short-term rentals throughout the City of Toronto. This will include amendments to zoning by-law 569-2013 and all applicable general zoning by-laws listed at the beginning of this notice. The proposed zoning by-law amendments will permit short-term rentals in a principal residence in residential and mixed use zones across the city. Short-term rentals are proposed to be permitted in a dwelling unit, a bed-sitting room, or a secondary suite, with a maximum of three bed-sitting rooms and one secondary suite.

These changes may affect the approval of building permits, zoning certificates or other applications for a minor variance, a consent to sever, an amendment to a zoning by-law, an Official Plan amendment or a Minister's zoning order and any appeals of these matters, as well as outstanding appeals of Zoning By-law 569-2013. All land owners and applicants should review the proposed amendments carefully, and consult with your professional advisors about the proposed changes and how they may impact your lands or development applications.

The City will be holding a statutory public meeting prescribed by section 34(12) of the Planning Act, R.S.O. 1990, c.P13 as amended and O. Reg. 545/06 to ensure that sufficient information and material is made available to enable the public to understand generally the proposed zoning by-law amendments to all applicable general zoning by-laws, and to give the public an opportunity to review and ask questions about the information and material, as well as make representations in respect of the proposed amendments.

Given that the amendments listed in this Notice regulate the use of lands within the geographic boundaries of the amalgamated City of Toronto, a key map has not been provided with this Notice.

Detailed information regarding the proposed amendments will be available for inspection, starting October 25, 2017, Monday to Friday between the hours of 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. at 35 Spadina Road, Toronto, ON M5R 2S9.
