The Mayor and Members of Toronto City Council are deeply saddened to learn of the passing of Robert (Bob) Brett on December 12, 2020. Bob spent 72 years providing care and compassion to friends, co-workers and family.

An avid lover of trains, Bob worked 36 years at Canadian Pacific (CP) Rail before retiring. Bob was the Treasurer of the Toronto Chapter of the CP Rail Pensioners' Association until his passing. In his retirement, Bob spent his time supporting friends and caring for his cats.

Bob passed away at home with his wife of 37 years, Linda Brett, at his side.

The City Clerk is requested to convey, on behalf of the Members of Toronto City Council, our sincerest sympathy to Linda, Bob's family, as well as the Bloor East Neighbourhood where Bob lived.
