

Declaring February 12, 2021
“Madame Speaker Day” in the City of Toronto

Moved by: Mayor John Tory

Seconded by: All Councillors

On February 12, 2021, Councillor Nunziata is turning 25.

Councillor Nunziata's contributions to the City of Toronto, and former City of York are unparalleled. She remains the favourite daughter of York-South Weston and so it is appropriate that this entire City Council should recognize and celebrate her on this special occasion.

The Mayor and Councillors recommend that:

1. City Council acknowledge Speaker Frances Nunziata's leadership, work, and patience in presiding over an unprecedented nine virtual sittings of City Council as Speaker during the COVID-19 pandemic, along with her decade of service as Speaker over the last two and a half terms.
2. City Council happily and unofficially declare February 12, 2021 “Madame Speaker Day” in the City of Toronto in recognition of the indefatigable Frances Nunziata.
3. City Council pledge to finish its business in as efficient a manner as possible today so that we don't find ourselves still meeting on her actual birthday next Friday.
4. City Council wish Speaker Frances Nunziata a very Happy Birthday!
