

growTO

Urban Agriculture Speaker Series

GrowTO: the What, How, Where & Why of Urban Agriculture

Join local and international urban agriculture experts to explore and discuss ways to scale up local food production in Toronto.

Location:
Ryerson
University
Architecture
Building
325 Church St.
"The Pit"

For more information visit livegreentoronto.ca
or email teo@toronto.ca

Supported by:

Call 3 1 1

Session 1: What can we grow? New crops and marketing for a multicultural city

Tuesday October 4, 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.

Special guest: Bill Sciarappa, Rutgers Cooperative Extension (Monmouth County, New Jersey).

Session 2: How can we grow? Food hubs from concept to practice

A special panel at the Toronto Food Policy Council's conference "Together at the Table: The Foundations and Future of Food in Toronto"

Thursday, October 20 – Full day event from 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Location: St. Lawrence Hall at 157 King Street East.

Note: Registration for this event is mandatory. Please visit foodpolicy.eventbrite.com to register.*

Special guest: Janine de la Salle, (Vancouver, BC), author of Agricultural Urbanism.

Session 3: Where can we grow? Planning and designing for a Carrot City

Tuesday November 1, 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.

Special guests: Katherine Brown, Southside Community Land Trust (Providence, Rhode Island) and Annie Novak, Eagle Street Rooftop Farm (Brooklyn, New York).

Session 4: Why should we grow? Making the case for urban agriculture

Tuesday November 15, 2011, 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.

Special guests: Nevin Cohen, The New School (New York City, New York) and Harry Rhodes, Growing Home (Chicago, Illinois).

