

scotiabank nuit blanche an all-night contemporary art thing

ZONE A INDEPENDENT PROJECTS

Abilities Arts Festival
I See What You Mean
Vincenzo Pietropaolo

Juxtaposing portraits by Pietropaolo, with contributions by visitors. Visitors will be supplied with tools to generate and add their own portraits.

Carlton Cinema
20 Carlton Street

---

Artscape Wychwood Barns- New Adventure in Sand Art
Sonic Spaces (the kinetics of sound)
Shawn Pinchbeck

SonicSpaces (the kinetics of sound) transforms people's movements into a dynamic interactive multichannel soundscape.

NAISA Space
601 Christie Street

---

Artscape Wychwood Barns- New Adventures in Sound Art and Theatre Direct
Audio Graffiti
Zack Settel and Mike Wozniowski

A sound installation, where users "tag" a wall with vocal or musical instrument sounds and encounter the sounds of others as they move along the wall.

Theatre Direct's Christie Studio
601 Christie Street

---

scotiabank nuit blanche an all-night contemporary art thing

Artscape Wychwood Barns – Playground studios and Theatre District
Night Light Travels
Ben Chaisson; Beth Kates ; Lynda Hill; and Gordon Hyland

Explore a child's night time world in a room filled with magical objects & interactive projections. Journey from childhood bedrooms to beyond the moon!

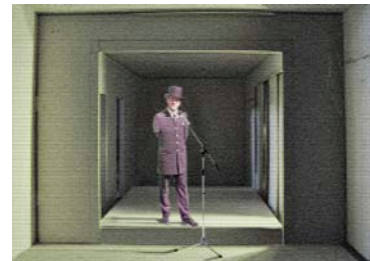

Studio 174
601 Christie Street

---

Artscape Wychwood Barns- Rebecca Singh and Hendrik School
Tell YOUR Story
Rebecca Singh; Hendrik Scheel; David DeGrow; and Caitlin Weld

Everybody has a story to tell, come and take the stage to tell yours. Members of the public are invited to tell six-minute stories in an intimate setting.

Canada's Smallest Theatre
601 Christie Street

---

Bail, Chadda, Cook, Danziger, Greisman, Miller, Moyle, Stein & Wobeser
Inside Out
Alexander Moyle; Barbara Cook; Elizabeth Greisman; Frith Bail; Gloria Stein; Radha Chaddah; Ruth Danziger; Sue Miller; and Wendy Wobeser

Nine installations reveal a saturated re-visioning of nature in varied forms, colours, patterns and whimsies on the Spadina Estate.

Spadina Museum
285 Spadina Road

---

scotiabank nuit blanche

an all-night contemporary art thing

Canadian Music Centre
The Crown of the Bell
Rose Bolton and Marc de Guerre

A heritage building provides refuge from the city as a blend of bells and electronic music echoes with a large projection of rare archival footage.

Chalmers House
20 St. Joseph Street

---

CFC Media Lab
Technological Displacement
Ryan Bigge; Hannah Epstein; Michael Evask; Shawn Kerwin; Edwin Lara; Monica Law; Laurel Macdonald; Dylan Reibling;
Ryan Rizzo; Vanessa Shaver; Mark Thoburn; John Watson;
Ron Wild; and Tsu-Ching Yu

On the eve of the centenary of Marshall McLuhan's life interactive installations explore the intangible nature of technology through sensory exploration.

Bata Shoe Museum
327 Bloor Street West

---

Institute for Contemporary Culture at the Royal Ontario Museum
Bollywood Cinema Showcards: Indian Film Art from the 1950s to the 1980s
Group Exhibition

Vintage artworks from Bollywood Cinema trace its history and aesthetics through posters, lobby cards, cinema booklets and 60 hand-painted showcards.

Royal Ontario Museum
100 Queen's Park

scotiabank nuit blanche

 an all-night contemporary art thing

John Shipman

Listening to Love: Next Time Can We Choose Our Gender?

John Shipman

Re-imagine your gender. On a genDRphone dial the sex and gender of a possible lover. Hear their words of love! See the Museum of Gender Archaeology.

St. Matthew's United Church
729 St. Clair Avenue West

---

Onestop Media Group, Art for Commuters & Toronto Animated Image Society
DRIFT: The Elements
Group Exhibition

Five experimental animations, each exploring the essential elements of life, drift through the subways all night without interruption.

TTC subway platform screens across Toronto

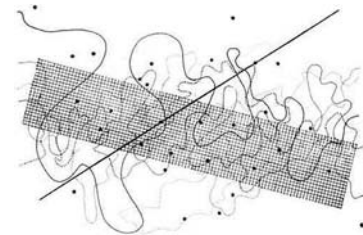

---

Soundstreams & The Gardiner Museum
A Celebration of John Cage @ 100
Kate Franklin

Soundstreams celebrates the 100th birthday of American composer John Cage with a vibrant night of music, dance, readings, visual art, and more!

111 Queen's Park

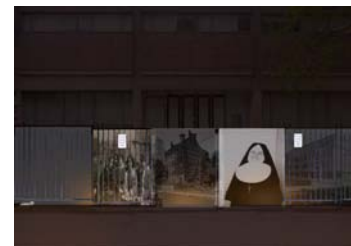

---

St. Joseph's College School
Cloister
The Students of St. Joseph's College School

Projections woven into intervals of performance and sound through a multimedia installation to reveal our story, our history.

74 Wellesley Street West

scotiabank nuit blanche an all-night contemporary art thing

The Japan Foundation, Toronto
Struggling Cities: from Japanese Urban Projects in the 1960's
Group Exhibition

Explore the experimental ideas on the city that flourished in Japan in the 1960's, through architectural models, photographs and video installations.

131 Bloor Street West,
2nd Floor of the Colonnade

---

The Toronto Choral Artists, Brett Potter & Church of the Redeemer
Compostela
Brett David Potter and Toronto Choral Artists

The "sacred journey" to Compostela is re-envisioned through video installation and choral performance, a movement in both sacred and secular space.

Church of the Redeemer
162 Bloor Street West

---

Todmorden Mills Heritage Museum and Arts Centre
Cloudscape
Xiaojing Yan

This elaborate installation work constructed of reed and paper forms evokes Chinese landscape painting as it soars and floats through space.

Papermill Gallery
67 Pottery Road

---

U of T - Aboriginal Studies Program
Medicine Walk
Group Exhibition

Decolonize artfully: a multi-disciplinary celebration that re-members and reclaims Aboriginal knowledge, artistry and language.

Kahontake Kitikan Garden
East Side of Hart House (West Side of University Avenue at Queen's Park)

---

scotiabank nuit blanche

an all-night contemporary art thing

U of T - Justina M. Barnicke Gallery & Hart House how far is near -- how near is far
Group Exhibition

Multiple installations provide immersive experiences of the surreal and political entanglements between the local and global in an accelerated world.

Hart House
7 Hart House Circle

U of T - Justina M. Barnicke Gallery & Hart House
All That is Solid Melts into Air
Mark Boulos

Two intense films on opposing walls juxtapose frenzied stock traders and guerrilla fighters in the Niger Delta preparing for battle.

The McLuhan Coach House
39A Queen's Park Crescent East

U of T - Marissa Largo and the Magkaisa Centre
Maleta Stories
Marissa Largo and Magkaisa Centre

Share your maleta stories, add them to our installation and be a part of constructing a family tree of migration on a piece of colonial architecture.

Centre for International Experience
33 St. George Street

U of T - Space Suit Studio
AirSHIP

Geoff Frost; Katie Kuzan; Susan Varickanickal; and Solar Blimp Design Team

Capturing the spirit of a 1930's adventure, this exhibit is a fleet of airships lighting up the sky while resting for the night over a jungle.

Donnelly Centre
160 College Street

scotiabank nuit blanche an all-night contemporary art thing

University of Toronto Schools
Intersection
Group Exhibition

Video projections exploring the intersections between growth, control, tradition and change are installed in the windows of a century-old high school.

371 Bloor Street West

---

World Wide Vision Productions
Silent Music
Akira Hasegawa and Ivo Videnov

This live light installation from an internationally renowned artist is inspired by and simulates the chaos in the creation of the Universe.

Casa Loma Stables
328 Walmer Road

---

