

scotiabank nuit blanche an all-night contemporary art thing

ZONE B INDEPENDENT PROJECTS

Art Gallery of Ontario
The Other Painting Competition
Paul Butler

Your vote decides the winner of a 12-hour artist-run painting competition where emerging artists compete in a series of painting challenges.

Art Gallery of Ontario's Weston Family Learning Centre
317 Dundas Street West

Broken Symmetry Collective
Temporary Investments
Dave Valliere

A participative sculptural event that tells a story of creation and destruction as the night unfolds - a story that we collectively create.

Ted Rogers School of Management
55 Dundas Street West

Diaspora Dialogues
Public Display of Democracy
Group Exhibition

Democracy as public art. Talk with Toronto's first Residents' Reference Panel as they learn of challenges facing City Hall and make recommendations.

Li Ka Shing Knowledge Institute
209 Victoria Street

Distillery District - Benecorpo Community, Hillary Predko & Anthony Swan
The St. James Circus
Anthony Swan; Hillary Predko; Maihyet Burton; Dylan Therrien-Hollingsworth; Amelia Cumming; Benecorpo Community; and Way-Station

Step right up! One night only! Our Famous Freak Show, Fine Fashions & Big Top Act will astound you! The greatest show since the fall of civilization.

55 Mill Street, Building 74

scotiabank nuit blanche an all-night contemporary art thing

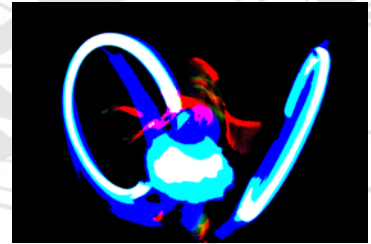

Distillery District - DEAF CULTURE CENTRE

Conversation Piece

Enza Iovio; Christopher Welsh; Matthew Hilliker and Figure and Ground:
Deaf View Photographers

This series explores captured movement and conversation through photography, live sculpture and performance art, inspired by language that moves.

Building 5, Suite 101
55 Mill Street

Distillery District - Le Laboratoire d'Art (Le Labo)

Lights Contacts

Scenocosme

Physical contact between spectators is transformed into a variety of lights and sounds, turning the participants into sonorous human instruments.

Cannery Building 58, Studio 317
55 Mill Street

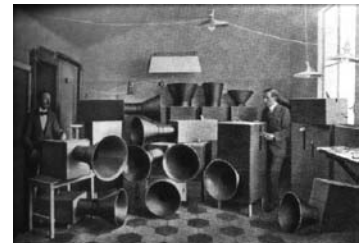

Distillery Historic District

The Futuristic Institute of Collective Happenings

Thom Sokoloski

A large scale site-specific animation inspired by the movement of Futurism which attempts to redefine various art forms at the turn of the 1900's.

55 Mill Street

Drawing with Frames

Drawing with Frames

Group Exhibition

Users can use EyeWriter technology to create their own unique art, which will be projected on a canvas wall.

Parking Lot at North East corner of Dundas and Victoria

scotiabank nuit blanche an all-night contemporary art thing

Jean-François Bouchard
Still Life
Jean-François Bouchard

A large scale photo installation exploring the surprising relationships that people entertain, beyond sexuality with vibrantly realistic erotic dolls.

Yonge Street, south of Gerrard Street

LeuWebb Projects
Film, Vinyl, Paper
LeuWebb Projects

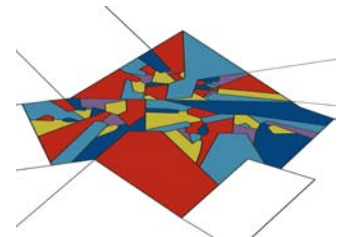

Elm Street will become a public space with furniture created from Yonge Street's vanishing media merchants: photoshops, record stores and booksellers.

On Yonge between Elm and Gould

Melez
Tessellate
Alize Zorlutuna; Robb Gray and Melez

An installation which re-imagines our relationship to the built environment through a mediated encounter between bodies and architecture.

Pedestrian Walkway between Dundas Street West and Trinity Square

OCAD University
Future Forward
Group Exhibition

Sci-fi and cinematic endeavours will explore an imagined future. What will tomorrow bring: techno lust or future shock?

100 McCaul Street

scotiabank nuit blanche an all-night contemporary art thing

Ryerson University - Department of Architectural Science
Cirrus

Tricia Arabian; Marcella Au; Sebastian Law; Mitchell Law; Jessica Stanford;
Michael Suriano and Razmig Titizian

Manipulate the angle and formation of an interactive representation of atmospheric clouds suspended in a downtown campus alleyway.

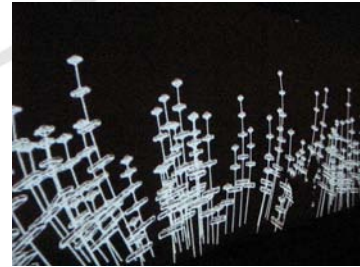

55 Gould Street

Ryerson University - Faculty of Communication & Design
& School of Image Arts

Reeds
David Bouchard

Animated reeds of light move on a series of windows as if blown by an invisible wind. Come watch their movements turn into a whimsical choreography.

245 Church Street

Ryerson University - School of Image Arts & Diversity Institute in Management and Technology
Honey, I'm Home!

James Warrack; Cheryl Hsu; Nicole Bazuin; and Sarah Allen Eagen

Guests of all ages & backgrounds challenge traditional audience expectations as they perform a 'missing' role in a 90s influenced family sitcom.

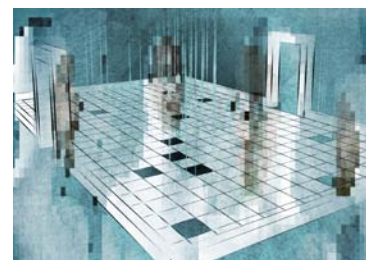

310 Church Street

Ryerson University - School of Radio and Television Arts

Observer FX
Gravity Wave

Visitors take part in performance art when live artists & digital processors incorporate visitor participation into a live audio-visual performance.

Rogers Communications Centre
80 Gould Street

scotiabank nuit blanche an all-night contemporary art thing

Ryerson University - Schools of Interior Design, Radio and Television Arts and Theatre
Egerton Falls
Sholem Dolgoy; Annick Mitchell and Michael J. Murphy

Using interactive video projection technology & lighting effects, existing rock & water formations in Lake Devo are transformed into Egerton Falls.

Lake Devo
Victoria Street and Gould Street (Ryerson University)

Yayo Tavorara
Aseptic Profile
Yayo Tavorara

Inside a pit-form brick construction, explore the emotional transformation of psychological tensions, using imagery inspired by airport security gate control.

Dominion Modern Gallery
School of Design at George Brown College
230 Richmond Street East

The Residue Group
Residue
Richelle Forsey; Peter Brickell; Kevin McBride; Sandros Valencia; Rimma Skeini; and Jamie Thompson

Experience the thrill of an urban adventure and explore the residue left behind the hoarding of closed factories, derelict homes and our cultural past.

Beaver Hall Gallery
29 McCaul Street

