New and Emerging Technologies, Policies and Practices Advisory Group Call for Deputations, August 20th, 2003

The New and Emerging Technologies, Policies and Practices (NETPP) Advisory Group is in the process of researching new and emerging technologies, policies and practices to manage Toronto's Solid Waste.

At this time, the Advisory Group is examining the submitted Request for Expression of Interest (REOI) documents. A list of submissions is available on the NETPP website at www.toronto.ca/wes/techservices/involved/swm/net/pdf/sumbission.pdf. All REOI submissions can be viewed at the Urban Affairs Library at Metro Hall, 55 John Street. For hours of operation, please call 416-395-5577. Please note that these documents are for reference only and may not be taken out of the library.

Members of the public are invited to make deputations to the Advisory Group at the meeting on Wednesday, August 20th, 2003. Deputants will be allowed 5 minutes each and are asked to focus their comments on the REOI submissions. For further information regarding NET, please check the website at: www.toronto.ca/wes/techservices/involved/swm/net/index.htm
