

New and Emerging Technologies, Policies and Practices Advisory Group Call for Deputations, November 12 & 26, 2003

The New and Emerging Technologies, Policies and Practices (NETPP) Advisory Group is in the process of researching new and emerging technologies, policies and practices to manage Toronto's Solid Waste. We would like your input on 2 different topics to be held on 2 separate deputation dates.

The first deputation date is scheduled for Wednesday November 12, 2003. At this time, the Advisory Group would like to hear deputations from the public on the Request for Qualifications (RFQL) for one or more small scale facilities as well as a newly drafted expert definition of incineration. The RFQL and the draft expert definition of incineration will be posted on the New & Emerging Technologies website on October 30, 2003. Deputants will be allowed 5 minutes each and are asked to focus their comments on the RFQL and the draft expert definition of incineration. Please note the following specifications for the meeting:

Meeting Date: Wednesday November 12, 2003
Time: 6:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.
Location: City Hall, Second Floor, Committee Room 4
Focus: RFQL & draft expert definition of incineration

The second deputation date is scheduled for Wednesday November 26, 2003. At this time, the Advisory Group would like to hear deputations from the public on the Policies & Practices Subcommittee's draft recommendations. These recommendations will be posted on the New & Emerging Technologies website on November 13, 2003. Deputants will be allowed 5 minutes each and are asked to focus their comments on the draft Policies & Practices Subcommittee recommendations. Please note the following specifications for the meeting:

Meeting Date: Wednesday November 26, 2003
Time: 6:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.
Location: City Hall, Second Floor, Committee Room 2
Focus: Policies & Practices Subcommittee recommendations
