SCHEDULE “A”

REASONS FOR DESIGNATION
1 SULTAN STREET

The property at 1 Sultan Street is recommended for designation for its cultural heritage value or interest. Located on the north side of Sultan Street, east of St. Thomas Street, the house form building was constructed in 1880.

The house form building displays features from the popular styles of the late 19th century, including the Second Empire. The north façade and the roof above this façade are included in the Reasons for Designation. The heritage attributes are the stone base and brick base course, the red brick cladding, the brick and stone trim, the two-storey bay window, the flat-roofed open porch with wood detailing on the main entrance, the cornice with a frieze and brackets, the mansard roof, and the pair of dormers with pediments and wood detailing.

The property at 1 Sultan Street is architecturally significant as an important surviving example of a late 19th century residential building in the neighbourhood south of Bloor Street West.
