SCHEDULE “A”

REASONS FOR DESIGNATION
11 ST. THOMAS STREET

The property at 11 St. Thomas Street is recommended for designation for its cultural heritage value or interest. Located on the southeast corner of St. Thomas and Sultan Streets, the detached house was completed in 1888 by builder Charles R. Rundle.

The house form building displays features from the popular styles of the late 19th century, including the Romanesque Revival. The north and west walls and the roofs over these walls are included in the Reasons for Designation. The heritage attributes are the stone base, the red brick cladding, the brick, stone, and terra cotta trim, the chamfered northwest corner, the round-arched and flat-headed door and window openings, the band courses and decorative panels, the hipped roof, and the dormers with wood detailing.

The property at 11 St. Thomas Street is architecturally significant as an important surviving example of a late 19th century residential building in the neighbourhood south of Bloor Street West.
