C. Specific restrictions.

(1) No person shall erect, display or maintain, or cause or permit to be erected, displayed or maintained any construction hoarding sign on, or as part of any construction hoarding prior to obtaining a permit issued pursuant to this article.

(2) No person shall erect, display or maintain, or cause or permit to be erected, displayed or maintained any construction hoarding sign on, or as part of any construction hoarding prior in contravention of the permit issued pursuant to this article.

(3) No person shall erect, display or maintain, or cause or permit to be erected, displayed or maintained any construction hoarding sign on, or as part of any construction hoarding in contravention of the restrictions contained within this article.

D. Removal of unauthorized construction hoarding sign.

(1) If a construction hoarding sign is erected or displayed in contravention of this article, the General Manager of Transportation Services, or a person acting upon his or her instructions, may:

(a) Notify any or all of the construction hoarding sign owners to:

[1] Repair the construction hoarding sign;

[2] Pull down, remove, or otherwise render the construction hoarding sign non-visible; or

[3] Correct the contravention so the construction hoarding sign complies with this article within 48 hours of the date of the notice.

(2) If a construction hoarding sign owner does not comply with the notice provided in Subsection D(1), the General Manager of Transportation Services, or a person acting upon his or her instructions, may without notice to the construction hoarding sign owner enter upon land as may be required and pull down, remove, or otherwise render the construction hoarding sign non-visible at the expense of the construction hoarding sign owner.
E. Storage of unauthorized construction hoarding sign.

(1) Construction hoarding signs that have been removed under Subsection D(2) shall be stored by the City for a minimum of 30 days, during which time the construction hoarding sign owner may retrieve the sign by:

(a) Paying any amounts owing to the City under this article, including the fee for retrieving an illegal construction hoarding sign as set out in Chapter 441, Fees and Charges; and

(b) Providing the City with a signed acknowledgement and release in a form acceptable to the City.

(2) A construction hoarding sign that has been removed by the City and stored for more than 30 days may be destroyed or otherwise disposed of by the City without notice and without compensation to the construction hoarding sign owner.

(3) Despite Subsection E(1), the City shall not be obliged to store a construction hoarding sign made primarily of paper or other lightweight material and may destroy the sign immediately upon removal.

F. Fees for storage and removal of unauthorized construction hoarding sign.

(1) If a construction hoarding sign is removed under Subsection D, in addition to any fine or other penalty that may be imposed for an offence under this article, the construction hoarding sign owner shall pay to the City the following fees as set out in Chapter 441, Fees and Charges:

(a) The fee for removing an illegal construction hoarding sign;

(b) If a sign has been stored, the fee for storing an illegal construction hoarding sign; and

(c) If a sign has been destroyed or otherwise disposed of by the City, the fee for disposal of a construction hoarding sign.

(2) If a sign is not retrieved, the fee for removing an illegal construction hoarding sign and the fees for storing and disposing of an illegal construction hoarding sign as set out in Chapter 441, Fees and Charges, shall be added to the fee payable for any subsequent permit obtained for the erection or display of construction hoarding signs or construction hoarding.
(3) The fee for removing an illegal construction hoarding sign as well as the fees for storing and disposing of an illegal construction hoarding sign, as set out in Chapter 441, Fees and Charges, may also be recovered by action or adding the charge to the tax roll and collecting the charge in the same manner as taxes.

G. Applicability of other by-law provisions.

(1) With the exception of those by-law provisions relating to construction hoarding signs as defined by this article, all other by-laws of the City shall continue to apply to the lands described above. Where conflict arises between this article and any other by-law, the provisions of this article shall prevail.

H. By amending Subsection 693-17B(5), by deleting the phrase "Section 693-18.1A(3)" wherever it occurs and substituting Section 693-19A(3), therefore; and

I. By deleting section 693-17B(1), and substituting the following therefore:

B. Temporary sign permit.

(1) No person shall display, place, alter or erect or cause to be displayed, placed, altered or erected, any temporary sign on public or privately owned lands, without obtaining a permit, except in the case of the following temporary signs:

(a) An official sign required by or erected under a federal or provincial statute or a by-law;

(b) A real estate sign, if the sign is on the lot being advertised for real estate purposes and is removed within 30 days after the property is no longer for sale or lease;

(c) An open house directional sign;

(d) A-frame signs promoting citizen participation in religious, civic, charitable or non profit activities and events, or advertising festivals and community events as permitted by § 693-24D;

(e) All other Temporary signs promoting citizen participation in civic, charitable or non-profit activities and events, or advertising festivals and community events as permitted by § 693-24A;

(f) A garage sale sign; and
(g) Election signs, as permitted in Article II of this chapter.

2. Schedule 12, Municipal Licensing and Standards, of Appendix C to Chapter 441, Fees and Charges, is amended by adding the following:
