SCHEDULE A

Chapter 354
APARTMENT BUILDINGS

ARTICLE 1
General

§ 354-1.1. Definitions.

A. As used in this chapter, the following terms shall have the meanings indicated:

APARTMENT BUILDING - A purpose-built rental building with three or more storeys and ten or more rental units but does not include a long-term care home, a licensed retirement home or a housing co-operative.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR - The Executive Director, Municipal Licensing and Standards or her or his designate.

MANDATORY WASTE DIVERSION REQUIREMENTS - Requirements to divert waste from landfill, as indicated in any applicable federal, provincial or municipal statute, by-law or regulation.

OPERATOR - The superintendent or property manager of an apartment building or property who may take on some of the roles relating to permitting occupancy but does not include an owner.

OWNER - The owner of an apartment building or property.

PROPERTY and REPAIR - The same meanings as in subsection 15.1(1) of the Building Code Act, 1992. These meanings are noted as follows, for reference purposes only, and are subject to Subsection C:

- (1) PROPERTY - A building or structure or part of a building or structure, and includes the lands and premises appurtenant thereto and all mobile homes, mobile buildings, mobile structures, outbuildings, fences and erections thereon whether heretofore or hereafter erected, and includes vacant property.
- (2) REPAIR - Includes the provision of facilities, the making of additions or alterations or the taking of any other action that may be required to ensure that a property conforms with the standards established in a by-law passed under this section.

RENTAL UNIT - Any living accommodation used or intended for use as rented residential premises.

STOREY - The portion of a building:

- (1) That is situated between the top of any floor and the top of the floor next above it; or
- (2) That is situated between the top of the floor and the ceiling above the floor, if there is no floor above it.

TENANT – includes a person who pays rent in return for the right to occupy a rental unit and includes the tenant's heirs, assigns and personal representatives, but "tenant" does not include a person who has the right to occupy a rental unit by virtue of being,

- (1) an owner or co-owner of the property in which the rental unit is located, or
 - (2) a shareholder of a corporation that owns the property;
- B. A term not defined in Subsection A shall have the same meaning as the term in the Building Code Act, 1992 or Chapter 629, Property Standards.
- C. In this chapter a reference to an Act, regulation or by-law is to that Act, regulation or by-law as it is amended or re-enacted from time to time.

ARTICLE 2 Registration

§ 354-2.1 Registration.

- A. No owner shall operate or allow the operation of an apartment building that is not registered in accordance with this section.
- B. An owner shall submit a registration in a form and manner satisfactory to the Executive Director for each property every 12 months and shall pay the amount specified in Chapter 441, Fees and Charges.
- C. A registration for each property shall contain the following information:
 - (1) The property owner(s) names and contact information;
 - (2) The property operator(s) names and contact information;
 - (3) Security features existing at the property including, but not limited to, locking systems, cameras and security services;

- C. No person shall rent a rental unit to a new tenant if the owner or operator is aware of the presence of pests in the rental unit.

ARTICLE 7
Offences, Entry to Inspect, Orders

§ 354-7.1. Offences.

- A. Every person who contravenes any provision of this chapter is guilty of an offence and on conviction is liable to a fine of no more than $100,000.

- B. In addition to a fine or fines provided for in this section every person who gains an economic advantage or economic gain from contravening this chapter shall be liable to a special fine in an amount equal to the fair market value of the economic advantage or economic gain so obtained from the contravention.
- C. In addition to offences referred to in Subsection A, every person is guilty of an offence under this chapter who:
- (1) Hinders or obstructs or attempts to hinder or obstruct any person exercising a power or performing a duty under this chapter;
 - (2) Neglects or refuses to produce or provide any information or thing to any person acting pursuant to an order made under section 378 of the City of Toronto Act, 2006;
 - (3) Knowingly makes, participates in, assents to or acquiesces in the provision of false information in a statement, affidavit, application or other document prepared, submitted or filed under this chapter.
- D. Where a corporation contravenes any of the provisions of this chapter, every director or officer who concurs in such contravention is guilty of an offence and on conviction is liable to a fine of no more than $100,000.
- E. Each offence is designated as a continuing offence and is subject to, for each day or part of a day that the offence continues a maximum fine of no more than $10,000. The total of all of the daily fines imposed for each offence may exceed $100,000.
- F. Where a corporation contravenes any of the provisions of this chapter, every director or officer who concurs in such contravention is guilty of an offence and, upon conviction, is liable to a fine not exceeding $100,000.

§ 354-7.2. Entry to inspect.

- A. In accordance with section 376 of the City of Toronto Act, 2006, an officer may enter upon land within the City at any reasonable time for the purpose of carrying out inspections to determine whether the following are being complied with:
- (1) This chapter; or
 - (2) A notice or order issued in accordance with this chapter.
- B. For the purposes of an inspection under Subsection A, an officer may:
- (1) Require, for inspection, the production of documents or things relevant to the inspection;
 - (2) Inspect and remove documents or things relevant to the inspection for the purpose of making copies or extracts of them;

- (3) Require information from any person concerning a matter related to the inspection;
- (4) Be accompanied by such person or persons as the officer determines is necessary if such person or persons possesses special or expert knowledge related to the purpose of the inspection; and
- (5) Make examinations or take tests, samples or photographs necessary for the purposes of the inspection.

§ 354-7.3. Orders to comply.

- A. An officer who finds a contravention of this article may make one or more orders requiring discontinuance of the contravening activity or to do work to correct the contravention under section 384 or 385 of the City of Toronto Act, 2006.
- B. The order may be served personally on the person to whom it is directed or by registered mail to the last known address of that person, in which case it shall be deemed to have been given on the third day after it is mailed.
- C. If there is evidence that the occupant of the land is not the registered property owner, the notice shall be served on both the registered property owner and the occupant of the land.
- D. If the address of the owner is unknown or the City is unable to effect service on the owner or occupant under Subsection B, a placard stating the terms of the order and placed in a conspicuous place upon land on or near the property shall be deemed to be sufficient notice to the owner.
- E. If the delay necessary to give an order under the preceding subsections would result in an immediate danger to the health or safety of any person, the order may be served personally on the person to whom it is directed or by a placard stating the terms of the order and placed in a conspicuous place upon land on or near the property.

§ 354-7.4. Remedial action.

If a person fails to comply with an order to do work to correct a contravention of this article, the Executive Director, or persons acting upon his or her instructions, may enter the lands at any reasonable time for the purposes of doing the things described in the order at the person's expense.
