

Authority: Planning and Growth Management Committee Item PG24.8, adopted as amended, by City of Toronto Council on December 5, 6, 7 and 8, 2017

CITY OF TORONTO

BY-LAW 1452-2017

To permit short-term rentals.

Whereas Council of the City of Toronto has the authority pursuant to Section 34 of the Planning Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. P.13, as amended, to pass this By-law; and

Whereas Council of the City of Toronto has provided adequate information to the public and has held at least one public meeting in accordance with the Planning Act;

The Council of the City of Toronto enacts:

1. This By-law applies to all the lands in the City of Toronto.
2. The terms shown in bold text indicate they are defined terms in this by-law.
3. Despite defined terms in the former general zoning by-laws, for the purposes of this by-law the defined terms below have the following meaning:
 - (1) Ancillary means naturally and normally incidental, subordinate in purpose or floor area, and exclusively devoted to a permitted use, building or structure.
 - (2) Bed Sitting Room means a room used as separate living accommodation that:
 - (a) has a private entrance from a hallway inside a building; and
 - (b) may have sanitary facilities but not food preparation facilities.
 - (3) Building means a wholly or partially enclosed structure with a roof supported by walls, columns, piers or other structural systems. A vehicle is not a building.
 - (4) Dwelling Unit means living accommodation for a person or persons living together as a single housekeeping unit, in which both food preparation and sanitary facilities are provided for the exclusive use of the occupants of the unit.
 - (5) Secondary Suite means self-contained living accommodation for an additional person or persons living together as a separate single housekeeping unit, in which both food preparation and sanitary facilities are provided for the exclusive use of the occupants of the suite, located in and subordinate to a dwelling unit. A secondary suite includes a converted dwelling in former City of Toronto By-law 438-86.
 - (6) Short-term Rental means all or part of a dwelling unit, that:
 - (A) is used to provide sleeping accommodations for any rental period that is less than 28 consecutive days; and

- (B) is the principal residence of the short-term rental operator.
- (7) Structure means anything that is erected, built or constructed of one of more parts joined together. A vehicle is not a structure.
- (8) Vehicle means a wheeled or tracked device, either self-propelled or capable of being pulled by a self-propelled device, for moving persons or objects, or used for construction or agriculture.
4. Despite any other provision in any former general zoning by-law, a short-term rental is a permitted use if:
- (1) it is in a dwelling unit, a bed-sitting room, or a secondary suite;
 - (2) there are no more than three bed-sitting rooms in a dwelling unit used for this purpose;
 - (3) the secondary suite is exclusively and separately occupied as a principal residence; and
 - (4) it is not in a vehicle.

Enacted and passed on December 8, 2017.
