City Divisions and Corporate Security Involvement

For the purpose of the City-wide Security Plan, City divisions are divided into three categories:

- 1) those in corporate space where Corporate Security has a direct responsibility to provide services;
- 2) those where the division has landlord responsibilities and Corporate Security provides services on a chargeback basis; and,
- 3) those where the division has landlord responsibilities and Corporate Security has little security involvement except for monitoring and alarm response of some buildings.
