TORONTO

CONDOLENCE MOTION

Moved by: Councillor Davis

Seconded by: Councillor Fletcher

The Mayor and Members of Toronto City Council are deeply saddened to learn of the passing of Stefanie Rengel on January 1, 2008.

Stefanie's life ended tragically in her East York neighbourhood on New Year's Day.

She is remembered by her family and friends as a happy, caring and creative person who saw the good in people and shared a love of life with everyone she knew. A talented young woman, who loved music and writing, Stefanie attended Rosedale Heights School of the Arts.

Like her parents, who are members of the Toronto Police Service, Stefanie was involved in public service. She was active in her local church, teaching Sunday school and volunteering in the community. Her contributions will be remembered by all who were touched by her enthusiasm and commitment.

Stefanie will be missed dearly by her family and friends. Recently, hundreds of community members in Stefanie's close-knit neighbourhood came together at a candlelight vigil to express their grief and support her family.

The City Clerk is requested to convey, on behalf of the Members of Toronto City Council, our deepest sympathies to Stefanie's parents Patricia Hung and James Hung, Adolfo Rengel-Gonzalez and Maureen Rengel, her brother Ian, as well as other family members and friends.
