COUNCILLOR EXPENSE POLICY REVIEW 2011

Current Policy

xx denotes where there are changes

- An election year begins on nomination day (January 2) and ends on Election Day.
- Councillors will not be allowed to use the office expense budget for advertising, newsletters, and community expenses after the first Monday in September (Labour Day) of an election year, except for communications to constituents on Committee, Community Council and Council matters or emergency situations.
- The following guidelines apply to an acclaimed Councillor or a Councillor not seeking re-election, as well as all Councillors who seek re-election.
- Nothing in this Policy shall preclude a Councillor from performing their job as a Councillor, nor inhibit them from representing the interests of the constituents who elected them.

a. Policies Applicable During Entire Election Year

- Corporate resources and funding may not be used for any election-related purposes, with the exception that community groups be extended access to City facilities for the explicit purpose of conducting all-candidates meetings, including all-candidates meetings for municipal, provincial and federal elections, at a nominal fee of $1.00, and all registered candidates within each specific category must be invited to attend such meetings.
- Councillors' staff may not canvass or actively work in support of a municipal, provincial or federal candidate or party during normal working hours unless they are on a leave of absence without pay, lieu time, float day or vacation leave.
- Councillors may not use their Constituency Office for any election-related purposes, which include displaying of any campaign related signs in the window or on the premises, as well as displaying any election-related material in the office.
- The Office Expense Budget for Councillors for the period January 1 to Election Day in a municipal election year be restricted to 11/12ths of the approved Office Expense Budget with the provision that subsequent to election day:

Revised Policy

xx denotes proposed changes

- Councillors will not be allowed to use the Office Expense Budget for advertising, newsletters, flyers, community expenses and community events after August 1 of an election year until the day after Election Day, except for communications to constituents on Committee, Community Council and Council matters or emergency situations.
- The guidelines apply to all Members of Council, whether they are seeking re-election, acclaimed to the office, or not seeking re-election. Additional policies apply to Councillors who are not seeking re-election or who are not returning to office after the election.

a. General

- The Office Expense Budget for Councillors for the period January 1 to Election Day in a municipal election year is restricted to 11/12th of the approved Office Expense Budget with the provision that subsequent to election day:
 - new Councillors are allocated a budget equal to 1/12th of the approved budget amount for the month of December; and
 - re-elected Councillors have available to them the balance of funds remaining as of Election Day.

- Once a Councillor has filed nomination papers, the Councillor will no longer be eligible to receive donations for their community events, per the Council-approved policy regarding donations to Council Member-Organized Community Events. [Adopted by City Council at its meeting of July 15, 16 and 17, 2008, EX22.6, recommendation 12 -- see Appendix 3]

b. Specific Limitations

- Once a Councillor has announced that they are not seeking re-election and plan to retire from office at the end of term, the Councillor will not be permitted to:
 - Increase the salary of their staff.
 - Buy furniture and equipment for the office.
 - Attend conferences, seminars or undertake business travel.

- new Councillors be allocated a budget equal to 1/12th of the approved budget amount for the month of December; and
- re-elected Councillors have available to them the balance of funds remaining as of Election Day.
- Councillors may not deliver any unsolicited material outside their existing ward where the printing and/or distribution costs are paid by the City. Care should be taken to ensure that the mailing of newsletters be restricted to the member's ward only (with accommodation made for the normal spillage associated with Canada Post postal walks.) This policy to be effective not only during an election year but at all times.
- Councillors may not:
 - Print or distribute any material paid by City funds that illustrates that a Councillor or any other individual is registered in any election or where they will be running for office;
 - Profile (name or photograph), or make reference to, in any materials paid by City funds, any individual who is registered as a candidate in any election;
 - Print or distribute any material using City funds that makes reference to, or contains the names or photographs, or identifies registered candidates for municipal elections; and that Minutes of City Council and Committee meetings be exempt from this policy;
- Councillors are responsible to ensure that the content of any communication material, including printed material such as newsletters, advertising etc., funded by the city for the operation of each Councillor's Office, is not directly election-related.
- Web sites or domain names that are funded by the City of Toronto may not include any election-related campaign material.
- The City Clerk or her designate shall be responsible at all times for setting of committee agendas, in consultation with the Chair of the Standing Committee.

Revised Policy

- After August 1 of an election year and until Election Day, no Councillor will be permitted to:
 - Place any advertisement in newspapers, magazines, other publications or websites that have a publication date after August 1 of an election year, even though the ad placement itself may be made prior to August 1.
 - Organize any community events in their wards, including movie nights, picnics, environment days, community celebrations, BBQs etc.
 - Update their existing personal Councillor website using external resources, distribute electronic newsletters, post YouTube videos, or create Facebook accounts or use other social media tools.
 - Pay for any new domain name for websites or pay for any web design services.
 - Conduct or authorize any automated phone campaigns, such as robocall or any similar automated virtual townhalls.
 - Print and distribute any newsletter to constituents.
 - Print and distribute any flyers to constituents, except in the case of emergencies.
 - Order any new stationery, including business cards, envelopes or letterhead for their office in large quantities.
 - Order new furniture or purchase office equipment, including computers or other computer accessories.
 - Attend any conferences or seminars other than those held by an inter-governmental organization such as FCM as a Board or Committee member (refer to General Travel Budget and guidelines in Appendix 1).
 - Purchase any gifts or promotional items for constituents, including greeting cards.
 - Purchase any tickets for community events or functions.
 - Order any congratulatory scrolls from the Protocol Unit.
- After Election Day, a Councillor not returning to Council will not be permitted to:
 - Increase the salary of their staff.
 - Buy furniture and equipment for their office.
 - Attend conferences, seminars and undertake business travel.

5 Allowable Expenses

This section outlines the categories and types of allowable expenses that can be charged to the Councillor's Office Expense Budget. It outlines the details for each type of expense, documentation requirements, and forms to be used.

All requests for payment or reimbursement for expenses must be supported with an original itemized invoice/receipt. Credit card statements or receipts will not be accepted. Where a Councillor or their staff is requesting reimbursement for an expense, proof of payment must also be submitted. In cases where additional information is required to support the expenditure, this is noted in the detail section of the allowable expense.

Councillors or their authorized staff must sign off all receipts or invoices with original signatures (signature stamps and electronic signatures will not be accepted).

Expenditure Category Guidelines

In order to help Councillors fulfill the spirit and the intent of the Councillor Expense Policy, the following are suggested guidelines for maximum spending limits for different expenditure categories.

- Councillors are encouraged to not exceed the limit for each category but have full flexibility in determining how the Office Expense Budget should be used to meet the requirements of their wards.
- Councillors should prioritize their spending amongst the different expenditure categories so as to not exceed the maximum of $30,000 in their Office Expense Budget.
- Councillors should note that individual limits and conditions that exist for each expense type must be complied with, including but not limited to Community
