The Mayor and Members of Toronto City Council are deeply saddened to learn of the passing of David Robertson on December 19, 2011.

David Robertson dedicated many years to serving his community and our City, at both a municipal and provincial level. He served as a Councillor for 13 years in the former City of Etobicoke. David then spent four years in the 1990's in Premier Bob Rae's office as a policy specialist.

Most recently, David was working as an ESL instructor for the Toronto District School Board.

His dedication and contribution to his community will not be forgotten.

The City Clerk is requested to convey, on behalf of the Members of Toronto City Council, our sincere sympathies to his wife Phoenix, his mother Helen, his son Long You, and his sister Joan.
