Summary
The St. Lawrence Heritage Conservation District study area was authorized for study on September 11, 2009 and identified as a high priority study area at the October 2nd, 2012 meeting of City Council. The objective of an HCD Study is to prepare research regarding the history, context, themes, development and character defining attributes of the area, to survey and assess all built form and landscape resources, to analyze the cultural heritage significance to make recommendations regarding the cultural heritage value of the area to determine if the study area has sufficient cultural heritage value to warrant the HCD plan(s) and designation.

City Planning Division staff in Heritage Preservation Services (HPS) established a Roster of Qualified Heritage Consultants, and issued an RFQ Work Assignment for the Heritage Conservation District Study for the St. Lawrence Street HCD study area. Staff identified the lowest bid, with cost and related expenses for this study estimated at $195,000.
The St. Lawrence HCD Study is to be fully funded from secured Section 37 and Section 45 contributions, including funds received from the development of 6-18 Church Street and 51-63 Front Street East (70 The Esplanade) (By-law 58-2011(OMB)) and of 10, 40 Adelaide Street West., 118 Yonge Street (Committee of Adjustment file A0141/08 TEY). HPS staff have confirmed that $95,000 in Section 37 funds was secured and received, together with accrued interest, for heritage conservation initiatives in the St. Lawrence neighbourhood in the former development, and that $100,000 in Section 45 funds was secured and received for the St. Lawrence HCD and other heritage studies in the latter development, and that these monies are available for use in this study.
