APPENDIX "A"

Chapter 767

TAXATION, PROPERTY TAX

ARTICLE I
General Definitions

§ 767-1. Definitions.

As used in this chapter, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

A. ACT – the City of Toronto Act, 2006.

B. ANNUAL TAX LEVY BY-LAW – the by-law enacted annually by Council levying the municipal or school tax rates, or both, for the year on the assessment in the City.

C. TAXES – Taxes levied by the City on real property located within the City for municipal and school purposes in accordance with the Act and the Education Act.

D. TREASURER — A person appointed to the management position of Treasurer in the City’s administrative organization, and who has also been appointed deputy treasurer under section 138 of the Act and therefore has all the powers and duties of the statutory treasurer under the Act, or that person's designate.

ARTICLE II
Delegation of the City's Powers to Hold Hearings and Make Final Decisions on Certain Applications Made Under the Act

A. The Government Management Committee established by Council is hereby delegated all necessary authority to hold meetings at which applicants can make representations to the Committee, and to make final decisions, in regard to all applications made under sections 300, 322, 323(1)(a), (b), (c), (d), (f), (g), and (h), 325, 326, and 327 of the Act.

B. The matters delegated by Council to the Government Management Committee under A cannot be exercised by Council.

§ 767-3. Delegation to the Assessment Review Board.

The Assessment Review Board is hereby delegated all necessary authority to exercise Council's powers and functions under sections 297 and 323(1)(e) of the Act.
§ 767-4. Tax Billing.

A. The Treasurer shall send all tax bills required in accordance with the provisions of the Act to the taxpayer's residence or place of business, or to the premises being taxed pursuant to the Annual Tax Levy By-law, or, pursuant to a written direction from a taxpayer to do so, to another address specified in the written direction from the taxpayer.

B. Tax bills will not be mailed to tenants. It is the responsibility of the person taxed to notify and collect taxes from tenants or other persons.

§ 767-5. Payment of Taxes.

A. Taxes shall be payable to the Treasurer.

B. The payment of taxes, or any instalment thereof, may be made at the following locations:

   399 The West Mall
   5100 Yonge Street
   150 Borough Drive
   100 Queen Street West
   850 Coxwell Avenue
   2700 Eglinton Avenue West

C. When not in default, the payment of taxes, or any instalment thereof, may also be made at any financial institution permitted by the Act and the Treasurer is hereby authorized to determine, in accordance with the provisions of the Act, the financial institutions where payment may be made.

D. When in default of payment of such instalment of taxes or any part of any instalment by the date for payment set out in the Annual Tax Levy By-law, the remaining instalment or instalments shall become due and payable immediately.

E. Nothing herein contained shall prevent the Treasurer from proceeding at any time with the collection of any rate, tax or assessment, or any part thereof, in accordance with the provisions of the statutes and by-laws governing the collection of taxes.

F. All moneys raised, levied or collected under the authority of this by-law shall be paid into the hands of the Treasurer, to be applied and paid to such persons and in such manner as the laws of Ontario and the by-laws or resolutions of the Council direct.
§ 767-6. Acceptance of Part Payments.

The Treasurer is authorized to accept part payment from time to time on account of any taxes due, and to give a receipt for such part payment provided that acceptance of any such part payment does not affect the collection of any penalty or interest charge imposed or collectable under Section 767-7 in respect to non-payment of any taxes or any instalment.

§ 767-7. Penalties and Interest.

A. A percentage charge of 1.25 percent of taxes due and unpaid be imposed as a penalty for non-payment of taxes, or any instalment thereof, and shall be added to any tax or instalment remaining unpaid on the first day of default.

B. Interest charges shall be imposed for the non-payment of taxes at the rate of 1.25 percent per month (15% per annum) of taxes due and unpaid and shall start to accrue on the first day of default.

C. Except in the case of taxes payable under sections 33 and 34 of the Assessment Act, any penalty imposed by Subsection A or interest charge imposed by Subsection B for non-payment of taxes and monies payable as taxes shall be added to every tax or assessment, rent or rate or any instalment or part thereof remaining unpaid on the first day of default and on the first day of each calendar month thereafter in which such default continues; and it shall be the duty of the Treasurer, immediately after the several dates named in the Annual Tax Levy By-law as appropriate, to collect at once, by distress or otherwise under the provisions of the applicable statutes all such taxes, assessments, rents, rates or instalments or parts thereof as shall not have been paid on or before the several dates named in sections the Annual Tax Levy By-law as appropriate, together with the said interest charges and penalties as they are incurred.

D. In respect of taxes payable under sections 33 and 34 of the Assessment Act, any penalty charge imposed by Subsection A or interest charge imposed by Subsection B for non-payment of taxes and monies payable as taxes shall be added to every amount of taxes so payable remaining unpaid on the first day after thirty days from the mailing by the Treasurer of a demand for payment and on the first day of each calendar month thereafter in which default continues; and it shall be the duty of the Treasurer immediately after the expiration of the said thirty days to collect at once by distress or otherwise under the provisions of the applicable statutes, all such taxes as shall not have been paid on or before the expiration of the said thirty day period, together with the said interest charges and penalties as they are incurred.

A. For the purposes of subsections 321(1) and (2) of the Act, the City establishes a minimum tax amount of $5.00 for a taxation year.
B. Where in any taxation year, the total taxes to be imposed on a property would be less than $5.00, no taxes shall be payable and no tax bill shall be sent.

ARTICLE IV
Delegation of Authority

A. Authority is delegated to the Treasurer, in his or her sole discretion, and in consultation with the City Solicitor, to:

(1) Initiate assessment appeals on behalf of the City by filing the necessary documentation with the appropriate tribunal or court, if the Treasurer is satisfied that one or more of the conditions in B are met;

(2) Participate in any assessment appeals initiated by property owners, if the Treasurer is satisfied that one or more of the conditions in C are met;

(3) Initiate a request for reconsideration or review, a motion, an appeal of a decision, and any other adjudicative process that arises out of property and assessment matters including an application for Judicial Review and the stating of a case;

(4) Take all appropriate measures to deal with any assessment related matters pursued pursuant to A(1),(2) or (3), including authority to discontinue or settle such matter where it is concluded that it is reasonable to do so, to executed minutes of settlement or any other settlement agreement where warranted.

B. The conditions for initiating assessment appeals on behalf of the City are:

(1) MPAC has acknowledged the error, and has indicated that the problem cannot be resolved through a request of reconsideration, minutes of settlement between the Assessment Review Board, MPAC, the City, and the property owner, or through omitted/supplementary assessments;

(2) the assessed value as returned on the assessment roll is considered to be undervalued by more than 25 percent and a successful appeal decision is likely to result in an increase in the assessed value of $1,000,000 or greater;

(3) the decision to appeal the assessment value is likely to result in revenue to the City of $100,000 or more or have precedent-setting implications on similarly-valued properties or property types; and

(4) the assessed value or classification is incorrect or inequitable in relation to other similar properties or property types.
C. The conditions for participating in assessment appeals initiated by property owners are:

(1) the assessed value is greater than $100 million;

(2) the potential loss in assessed value is greater than 50 percent of the total assessed value;

(3) the potential tax revenue implications are greater than $1,000,000;

(4) there are precedent-setting implications; and

(5) there are legislative or other implications:

§ 767-10. Signing Documents in place of Treasurer.

The Director, Revenue Services, the Manager of Revenue Accounting and Collections, the Manager of Property Taxation and Assessment, and the Manager, Operational Support, are authorized to sign the following taxation and collection documents on behalf of the City in the place of the Treasurer:

A. Tax certificate;
B. Tax arrears certificate;

(b) Is owned solely by the estate of a low-income person, by the widow, or by both.

LOW-INCOME SENIOR — A person who is:

(1) 65 years of age or older; or

(2) Between 60 and 64 years of age; and

(a) Is in receipt of the Guaranteed Income Supplement Allowance under the Old Age Security Act (Canada); or

(b) Is a widowed person receiving the spouse’s allowance under the Old Age Security Act (Canada).

B. Cancellation amount.

(1) Subject to Subsection B(2), an eligible person who makes an approved application in respect of eligible property shall receive, in respect of the current taxation year, a cancellation in the amount of the sum of the following, provided that the sum is greater than or equal to $10:

(a) The tax increase;

(b) The portion of all tax increases previously cancelled pursuant to this article which are otherwise payable in respect of the current taxation year; and

(c) The portion of all earlier year tax increases cancelled in earlier taxation years pursuant to any previous program which are otherwise payable in respect of the current taxation year.

(2) If an approved application is made in respect of a taxation year preceded by two consecutive taxation years for which no approved application was made, the eligible person is no longer eligible for a cancellation under Subsections B(1)(b) and (c) in respect of any taxation years prior to that year.

ARTICLE VI
Optional Property Classes

A. The new multi-residential property class, as defined by Ontario Regulation No. 282/98, shall apply within the City.
B. Subsection 10(4) of Ontario Regulation No. 282/98, as amended, shall not apply within the City.

§ 767-16. Applicability of residual commercial property class.

The residual commercial property class, as defined by Ontario Regulation No. 282/98, shall apply within the City, commencing in the 2008 taxation year.

ARTICLE VII
Tax Rebate Program for Ethno-Cultural Centres

§ 767-17. Definitions.

As used in this article, the following terms shall have the meanings indicated:

ELIGIBLE ORGANIZATION — An organization providing an ethno-cultural centre and meeting the qualifications for a tax rebate set out in § 767-19.

ELIGIBLE PROPERTY — Real property owned, used and occupied, or used and occupied under a lease with a term of 60 years or more, by an eligible organization for the purposes of providing an ethno-cultural centre. A property which was previously eligible remains eligible if it is not used for the purposes of providing an ethno-cultural centre during a period of reconstruction or renovation of no more than five years.

ETHNO-CULTURAL CENTRE — A centre for the promotion of culture within the multicultural context of Canadian society and for the facilitation of communication and understanding of culture, education, arts and trade, the activities of which are accessible to the community as a whole or an appreciable portion thereof at minimal or no cost, and which are not contrary to public policy, and all parking space ancillary to such a centre.

§ 767-18. Tax rebate for eligible organizations.

Provided that an eligible organization meets the qualifications set out in § 767-19, an annual tax rebate in the amount of 100 percent of the taxes payable in respect of that year by the eligible organization on eligible property shall be provided to the eligible organization or credited to the property tax account for the eligible property.

An organization providing an ethno-cultural centre is qualified to receive a tax rebate under § 767-18 and is an eligible organization if:

A. It is a registered charity within the meaning of the Income Tax Act (Canada);
B. It occupies and uses the eligible property for the purposes of an ethno-cultural centre;
C. It has made an application for a tax rebate in accordance with the provisions of § 767-20, which application is in respect of those taxes levied in the year prior to the year in which the application is first made and all subsequent years in which it is otherwise qualified for a tax rebate;

D. No taxes or other charges for prior years remain in arrears on the eligible property; and

E. It agrees to annually notify the Treasurer of any change in circumstances which would alter its status as an eligible organization or the status of its property as eligible property, and to provide any documentation requested by the City from time to time to confirm its continuing eligibility, all in a form satisfactory to the Treasurer.

A. An application must be in writing on a form prepared by the Treasurer for this purpose and must be submitted to the City on or before December 31 of the year subsequent to the taxation year for which a tax rebate is first sought;

B. An application must include documentation in support thereof in a form satisfactory to the Treasurer, to establish that the applicant is an eligible organization, and that the property for which the application is made is eligible property.

The City will provide to each eligible organization which receives a tax rebate under this article an annual statement of the amount of tax rebate for the year

ARTICLE VIII
Tax Rebate Program for Registered Charities

§ 767-22. Definitions.

As used in this article, the following terms shall have the meanings indicated:

ELIGIBLE CHARITY — A registered charity or a registered Canadian amateur athletic association within the meaning of the Income Tax Act (Canada).

ELIGIBLE PROPERTY — Real property occupied by an eligible charity in the commercial or the industrial property class.

§ 767-23. Rebate.

A. Provided that an eligible charity meets the qualifications set out in § 767-24, an annual tax rebate in the amount of 40 per cent of the taxes payable in respect of that year by the eligible charity on eligible property shall be paid to the eligible charity by the City in the following instalments:
(1) One-half of the rebate shall be paid within 60 days of the City’s receipt of the application for the taxation year; and

(2) The remainder of the rebate shall be paid within 120 days of the City’s receipt of the application for the taxation year.

B. If an application is made pursuant to Subsection B of § 767-25, the City shall make a final adjustment of the rebate after the final taxes payable for the taxation year by the eligible charity can be determined, which adjustment shall consist of the difference between the amount of rebate paid to the eligible charity based on the estimated taxes and the amount of rebate to which the eligible charity is entitled, and which adjustment may affect the amount of the second instalment of the rebate to be paid pursuant to Subsection A(2) hereof or, if the second instalment has already been paid, may be deducted from or added to the taxes payable in the following year or may be deducted from or added to the rebate payable to the eligible charity in the following year.

An eligible charity is qualified to receive a tax rebate under § 767-23 if:

A. It has made an application for a tax rebate in accordance with § 767-25

B. It agrees to notify the Treasurer of any change in circumstances which would alter its status as an eligible charity or the status of its property as eligible property, in a form satisfactory to the Treasurer;

C. In the event that it received any rebate amount from a municipality other than the City in any year that it also received an amount under this article, it shall pay to that other municipality the difference between the amount it received from that municipality and the amount to which it was eligible from that other municipality; and

D. No taxes or other charges for prior years remain in arrears on the eligible property.

§ 767-25. Applications.

A. An application for a tax rebate shall:

(1) Be in writing, on a form prepared by the Treasurer for that purpose;

(2) Include documentation in support thereof in a form satisfactory to the Treasurer to establish:

   (a) That the applicant is an eligible charity;

   (b) That the property for which the application is made is eligible property; and

   (c) The total taxes payable for the eligible property in the year in respect of which the application is made.

(3) Be submitted to the Treasurer between the first day of January of the year in respect of which the application is made, and the last day of February of the following year,
(4) Despite (3), the Treasurer may accept applications from eligible charities in respect of all eligible properties after the deadline set out in (3) in the following extenuating circumstances justifying the applicant being unable to make the application by the deadline:

(a) on or before the last day of December of the year following the year in respect of which the application is made, provided that the Treasurer has not previously accepted an application made in respect of the eligible property after the deadline set out in (3) for any previous taxation year; and

(b) within 365 days of the property first becoming eligible as a result of an assessment or tax appeal or a supplementary or omitted assessment.

B. If an application is made before the eligible charity receives notification of the final taxes payable for the taxation year, the application may be based on an estimate of the taxes payable by the eligible charity on the eligible property, which estimate shall equal the taxes payable by the eligible charity on the eligible property in the preceding taxation year.

C. An application under Subsection B shall comply with the requirements of Subsection A.

§ 767-26. Interest.

Interest shall be paid by the City on any rebates not paid to an eligible charity in accordance with § 767-23, at a rate of interest equal to the lowest prime rate reported to the Bank of Canada by any of the banks listed in Schedule I of the Bank Act (Canada).

§ 767-27 Statements.

The City shall provide to each eligible charity which receives a tax rebate under this article an annual statement of the amount of tax rebate for the year.

ARTICLE IX
Tax Rebate Program for Veteran’s Clubhouses and Legion Halls

As used in this article, the following terms shall have the meanings indicated:

ELIGIBLE ORGANIZATION — An organization which occupies and uses eligible property.

ELIGIBLE PROPERTY — Lands or buildings, or a portion thereof, used as a memorial home, clubhouse, or athletic grounds for veterans of the naval, military or air forces of Canada, Great Britain or Her Majesty’s allies. A property which was previously eligible remains eligible if it is not used for the purposes of providing a memorial home, clubhouse, or athletic ground for veterans of the naval, military or air forces of Canada, Great Britain or Her Majesty's allies during a period of reconstruction or renovation of no more than five years.
MEMORIAL HOME — A facility that provides affordable housing or rental housing units at below average rents, as defined in the City of Toronto Municipal Housing Facilities By-law, By-law No. 282-2002, for veterans, or spouses thereof, of the naval, military or air forces of Canada, Great Britain or Her Majesty’s allies, and all parking space ancillary to the facility.

§ 767-29. Rebate.

Provided that an eligible organization meets the qualifications set out in § 767-30, an annual rebate in the amount of 100 percent of the taxes payable in respect of that year by the eligible organization on the eligible property shall be paid to the eligible organization or credited to the property tax account for the eligible property.

§ 767-30. Eligible organization.

An eligible organization is qualified to receive a tax rebate under § 767-29 if:

A. It has made an application for a tax rebate in accordance with § 767-31 which application is in respect of those taxes levied in the year prior to the year in which the application is made and all subsequent years in which it is otherwise qualified for a tax rebate

B. It has agreed to notify the Treasurer of any changes in circumstances which would alter its status as an eligible organization or the status of its property as eligible property, and to provide any documentation requested by the City from time to time to confirm its continuing eligibility, all in a form satisfactory to the Treasurer;

C. No taxes or other charges for prior years remain in arrears on the eligible property.

An application for a tax rebate shall:

A. Be in writing, on a form prepared by the Treasurer for that purpose, and must be submitted to the City on or before December 31 of the year subsequent to the taxation year for which a tax rebate is first sought;

B. An application must include documentation in support thereof, in a form satisfactory to the Treasurer, to establish that the organization is an eligible organization, that the property for which the application is made is eligible property, and if the eligible organization is a memorial home, the number of housing units that are occupied by veterans in the year in respect of which the application is made.

§ 767-32. Statements.

The City shall provide to each eligible organization which receives a tax rebate under this article an annual statement of the amount of tax rebate for the year.
§ 767-33. False Statements.

A. If the Treasurer, in his or her discretion, is satisfied that an applicant has participated in, assented to, or acquiesced in the making of false or deceptive statements in an application under Article V, VI, VIII or IX and, on the basis of the false or deceptive statement, the City erroneously provided a tax deferral, cancellation or rebate under Article V, VI, VIII or IX, the Treasurer may:

1. disqualify the property from eligibility for a tax deferral, cancellation, or rebate for the year in respect of which the application was made;

2. require repayment of any tax deferral, cancellation, or rebate paid and add the deferred, cancelled or rebated taxes back onto the tax roll from the date that the taxes were originally deferred, cancelled or rebated; and

3. require payment of interest at the rate of 1.25% per month (15% per annum) on the amount required to be repaid under A(2) from the date that the taxes were originally deferred, cancelled or rebated.

The repayment of taxes and interest assessed under A(2) and (3) can be collected by adding the taxes and interest to the tax roll for the property.
