Recommendations

Councillor John Filion, seconded by Councillor Glenn De Baeremaeker, recommends that:

1. City Council formally request TO2015, the Government of Ontario and City of Toronto Officials responsible for Games-related cultural activities to ensure an equitable distribution of Pan Am and Parapan Am Games cultural activities across the City.
2. City Council direct the Deputy City Manager, Cluster A, to report to the Economic Development Committee by June 2014 on the status of this request.

Summary

As part of the promotional activities and hosting of the Toronto 2015 Pan Am/Parapan Am Games, the City of Toronto has made a significant contribution towards a budget to fund cultural activities designed to increase awareness of, and participation in, this major event.

It is important that residents from across the City have somewhat equal opportunities to share in these cultural activities and to experience a sense of participation in this major event.
