RE: BIA RESTAURANT ROW PATIO EXTENSTION DURING TIFF OPENING WEEKEND

During the Toronto International Film Festival opening weekend, taking place from September 4th – 7th, 2014 The Toronto Entertainment District BIA will be working with the AGCO, City of Toronto and restaurants of "Restaurant Row" to obtain approvals to extend their patios into the south curb lane.

With Tiff's approval of a full King St. closure from University Ave. to Blue Jays Way, over the opening weekend, "Restaurant Row" restaurants will apply for temporary patio extension licenses to occupy the south curb lane on the south side of King St. between John St. and Blue Jays Way.

The BIA will work with all operators to ensure everyone is in full compliance with Alcohol and Gaming Commission of Ontario, Toronto Police Services, Toronto Fire Department, Toronto Public Health and Toronto Building.

Temporary liquor license patio extension from September 4th to September 7th for the following establishments:
