TORONTO MUNICIPAL CODE
CHAPTER 140, LOBBYING

member of Council on a general neighbourhood or public policy issue, subject to the exceptions in Subsections B and C. [Amended 2008-07-17 by By-law No. 852-2008]

- B. Subsection A does not apply if the communication is in respect of a matter, described in Subsection A of the definition of lobby in § 140-1, that is for the special benefit of the individual, business or organization.
- C. If the constituent engages a consultant lobbyist as defined in § 140-11 to act on the constituent's behalf, the consultant lobbyist is still required to comply with the requirement to file a return in Article II. [Amended 2008-01-30 by By-law No. 87-2008¹⁶]

§ 140-7. Protection of identity.

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as requiring the disclosure of the name or identity of any individual if that disclosure could reasonably be expected to threaten the safety of that individual.

§ 140-8. Contingency fees prohibition.

- A. A person, on whose behalf another person undertakes lobbying activities, shall not make a payment for the lobbying activities that is in whole or in part contingent on the successful outcome of any lobbying activities.
- B. A person who lobbies a public office holder shall not receive payment that is in whole or in part contingent on the successful outcome of any lobbying activities.

§ 140-9. Restriction on former senior public office holders.

[Amended 2008-01-30 by By-law No. 87-2008¹⁷]

- A. Former senior public office holders shall not lobby current public office holders during the 12 months after the date he or she ceased to hold office or ceased to be employed as a senior public office holder by the City or a local board (restricted definition), or ceased to hold office as a member of the Board of Health.
- B. Subsection A applies to any senior public officer holder who ceased to hold office or ceased to be employed as a senior public office holder by the City or a local board (restricted definition), or ceased to hold office as a member of the Board of Health on or after February 11, 2008.

§ 140-10. Registration requirement.

No person shall lobby a public office holder without being registered as required under Articles II, III or IV, unless otherwise exempted under this chapter.
