COMMENTS

A candidate has chosen to withdraw from the appointments process

On December 4, 2015, the City Clerk's Office received an email from John West, a candidate recommended by the Corporations Nominating Panel for appointment to the Toronto Hydro Board for a two-year term from December 10, 2015 to December 10, 2017. In his email, Mr. West requested that his name be withdrawn from consideration for appointment to the Toronto Hydro Board of Directors.

City Council should respect Mr. West's wishes by deleting his name from the slate of proposed directors. City Council should ask the Corporations Nominating Panel to meet at its earliest convenience to recommend another candidate for appointment to the Toronto Hydro board.
