Hi there,

This is in regards to my application for a SOP. The event that I'm having is a public event which is fundraising Dinner & Dance for my Cricket team .

Tickets will be sold to public for this event and also there would be selling of alcoholic beverages strictly for the purpose of raising fund for the team.

Please note that all regulations will be followed as stipulated in the application.

If more space required, please list on a separate page.

Designated or Responsible Person(s)

The permit holder or responsible person as indicated on the application and permit must be in attendance at the event. If in an emergency situation the permit holder/responsible person is unable to attend, then it is the responsibility of the permit holder to designate in writing someone to attend the permit event on his/her behalf. The designated person is responsible to ensure that all legal requirements for the permit event are met. The designated person must not be someone who has previously been refused a special occasion permit(s) by the AGCO.

All alcohol must be purchased with the permit at a government store such as an LCBO Store, an LCBO Agency Store, The Beer Store or any authorized Ontario Winery, Brewery or Distillery Store. All receipts of alcohol purchased under the permit must be made available upon request at the event to an AGCO Inspector or a police officer.

Private Events must be events that are limited to invited guests only (including stags, stag and does, bridal showers, etc.). The event must not be advertised to the public (for example: by way of flyers, newspaper, internet or radio). There can be no intent to gain or profit from the sale of alcohol at the event.

Public events conducted by registered charities and non-profit organizations / associations may accept alcohol donated by manufacturers of alcohol. Receipts for all donated product must be made available.

Left over alcohol must be removed from the premises at the end of the event. When returning unopened alcohol purchased from a government store, you must produce the permit and a copy of the receipt(s). Check with the retailer at which you purchased the alcohol for further details.

The holder of an SOP that permits multiple day events may choose to store alcohol that is sold or served under the permit between days of the events. The alcohol must be stored in a secure area that is not a dwelling and it cannot be stored with other alcohol not sold or served under the permit. The permit holder must have completed the appropriate section of the application form advising the AGCO of the location where the alcohol will be stored, as well as a list of persons with access to this location.

If there is a change to the permit area(s) or the event after the permit is issued (such as a change in location, date, event type, permit area(s) and/or capacity, the addition of tiered seating, or the addition of participating licensees) the permit holder must notify the AGCO immediately and apply for a new permit. If the permit holder does not notify the AGCO of any such changes, administrative action may be taken against the permit holder including, but not limited to, the immediate revocation of the SOP. Application fees are non-refundable.

A police officer or AGCO Inspector may revoke an SOP while the event is underway if he/she reasonably believes that the Liquor Licence Act or Regulations are being contravened in connection with the event.

Any SOP holder may be issued a monetary penalty as a result of specific breaches of the Liquor Licence Act and Regulations. The amount of the monetary penalty will be based on the approved Schedule of Monetary Penalties which can be found on the AGCO website. For further information on monetary penalties please go to www.agco.on.ca.

SOPs may be subject to conditions, such as hours of sales and service, or requiring licensed security staff to be hired/on duty during the event.
