

The Robert Barron Building (1889 and 1902) is the three-storey commercial building anchoring the southwest corner of Yonge Street and Charles Street West