- PB also reported on attending the opening of Old's Cool General Store (250 Westlake at Lumsden, co-owners Mariko and Zahra) on behalf of the TEYCPP. The event was well attended, but PB's talk on the history of the store and area was deferred to a later date.

has received no response, so will move on to new potential candidates, such as John Lea.

- AM reported on a conversation with Councillor Janet Davis during which Councillor Davis expressed her wish to change the lane suggested for Michael Prue to a different location, off Lumsden. AM plans to arrange a follow-up appt. with the councillor to discuss this and to try to explain the advantages of the original selection.

5) AM reported on meeting with PB and Sandra Iskander of the Corktown group on Aug 27. Ms. Iskander feels that Councillor Pam McConnell is the best person to bring forward the idea of designating Bright St. and that the next step should be organizing a community meeting through the councillor’s office. Such a meeting could include a presentation from Catherine Nasmith on the value of historical designation for homeowners and neighbourhoods.

- discussion of building on corner of Bright St. and Queen (463 Queen) that went before the Committee of Adjustment on Aug. 23 and was denied protection from demolition.

6) JC shared the details of the upcoming Carrying Place event (Sept. 26) in Etobicoke, at which PB and JC will be volunteering in support of the local historical society.
