Dear Chair and Members of Planning and Growth Management Committee:

PG2.6: Proposed Settlement of Appeals to OPA 199 Heritage Policies PGMC Meeting 2 – February 23RD, 2015

CORRA, the Confederation of Resident and Ratepayer Associations in Toronto, is an independent incorporated confederation representing its member resident and ratepayer groups (unincorporated and incorporated) from the north, south, east, and central areas of the City of Toronto.

CORRA received party status on the appeal of OP199 Heritage Policies filed by the Building Industry and Land Development (BILD) group to the Ontario Municipal Board (OMB). CORRA's involvement with this appeal was supported by our members and CORRA was included and involved throughout the OMB mediation process and final settlement discussions.

CORRA is writing to express our support of the settlement reached on February 6, 2015 and to support staff recommendation that seeks Council's approval that would result in a comprehensive settlement of the OP Heritage Policies and eliminate the need for a full hearing.

On behalf of the CORRA Executive and members, we commend City staff and all parties involved for their constructive resolution of the issues.

Sincerely,

Eileen Denny
